INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

We carry a greater depth of self-confidence and chance of succeeding when we have affirmation, a sense of direction and clear purpose in life. Each of these serve to provide our lives with meaning, allowing us to clearly establish priorities and goals. They also are necessary for integrity, which is the conviction and single mindedness that keeps us grounded in the truth of who we are. "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased." Jesus' baptism provides him with exactly what he needs to get about the business of his mission as the Son of God. He is given what he needs to be successful in fulfilling the purpose for which he was sent. Our baptisms give us these same gifts. We receive the affirmation we need from God, knowing that we are one of his beloved daughters and sons. We are gifted with the direction and clear purpose we need in order to be productive stewards and faithful Christians. Are we ready and willing to answer the call?

CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY

THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY OF AMERICA  Next week we will be collecting for the Catholic University of America which is located in the heart of the nation's capital, It offers graduate and undergraduate courses in more than 180 academic programs. By giving to the National Collection, you will help support more than 6,000 students who are seeking a faith-filled education. Your investment will enable the University to continue to support the Church and to advance its work of preparing the next generation of leadership, both religious and lay, of our Church and nation. Thank you for your generosity.

God saw she was getting tired and a cure was not to be, so He put His arms around her and whispered, "Come home with Me". With tearful eyes we watched her suffer and saw her fade away. Although we loved her dearly, we could not make her stay. A golden heart stopped beating, a determined spirit was at rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best.

First Reading: Isaiah 55:1-11

Today's reading is from a part of Isaiah written when the Jewish people were exiled in Babylon, which is in modern-day Iraq. This section is often referred to as the "book of comfort" because of the encouragement it gives. Today's passage is the finale to this "book of comfort" and uses the image of poor people being invited by God to a joyful banquet.

Second Reading: 1 John 5:1-9

In this passage, the author of the first letter of John emphasizes belief in Jesus Christ as Son of God. He uses phrases and symbols which describe Christ's baptism, death and resurrection. The Spirit, present at these events, testifies to Christ as Son of God. Such testimony is far superior to any human witness.

You will draw water joyfully from the springs of salvation. (Is 12:3)

ST. LEO THE GREAT- CLEVELAND, OHIO

Dear Parishioners,

Rita Gurgol was a parishioner here at St. Leo's for 64 years. Her two children attended our parish school. We had Rita's funeral Mass on December 30th and celebrated her faith which expressed itself in part by praying the rosary and having a devotion to St. Jude. Though living with her daughter for the last 6 years, she remained connected to our parish by reading the bulletin weekly. I recalled how the three things Rita enjoyed in her life...sewing, making Polish bread and being a Cleveland sports fan, were all connected with her faith. May she rest now in eternal Christmas peace and may God's peace be with her daughter Judy.

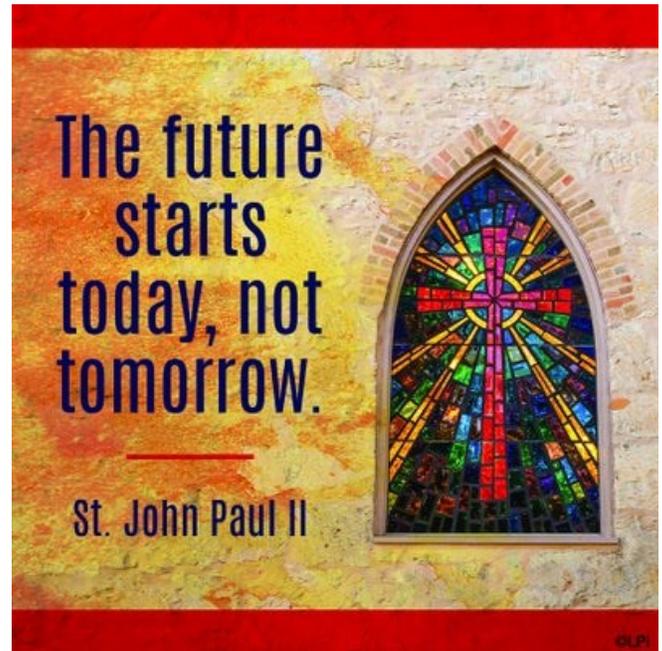

Lucille Mills has also been a parishioner of St. Leo's for some time along with her husband Patrick and their son Scott. Lulu was married for 57 years and was a committed mother and doting grandmother. Like our Blessed Mother, who also was a loving spouse to Joseph & mother to their one Son, Jesus, Lulu followed Mary's example as one who created a loving home for her family. As such, Lulu had a devotion to Mary, especially under the title of "Our Lady of Fatima" and always told her son Scott to ask for Our Lady's intercession. I am confident that Mary prayed for Lu during her life and "at the hour of death."

After today's feast of the Baptism of the Lord, we are once again back into the "Ordinary Time" of the Church's liturgical year. We go from white & gold vestments to green and the church is cleared of its Christmas decorations. How quickly time moves us from one liturgical season to another. Before you know it, we will don the purple color of Lent which begins on February 17th. But for now let us continue to take life as it comes to us with trust in God's providence.

The Diocese has informed us that seventeen priests have volunteered to be designated as COVID 19 ministers who anoint critically ill COVID patients who are near death. There have been many priests who have contracted COVID themselves (and some have succumbed to it) and so the Bishop is urging us to be cautious regarding our own health for the good of the people we are called to serve during this time. As such, Deacon Pat and Joan and I are trying to avoid enclosed spaces such as funeral homes and are conscious of other situations where the virus is more likely to be contracted so please be aware of this and feel free to reach out if you have questions about our ministry to you or to loved ones at this time. Due to the increased number of COVID cases, we are not renting out the Parish Center at this time until further notice.

The weekly television Mass produced by the Catholic Diocese of Cleveland has moved. The Sunday television Mass can be seen at 10 a.m. on WUAB Channel 43. This change provides viewers with an opportunity to take part in the weekly celebration of the Mass at a much more convenient time. In addition, WUAB Channel 43 is an over-the-air station that is accessible even to those without cable TV. And of course we continue to provide a live-streaming video of every weekend and weekday Mass (as well as funerals upon request of the family) and these can be watched any time on demand. Just go to our parish website at leothegreat.org or connect with us on social media where YouTube, Facebook and Twitter will send you notifications when Mass is being celebrated. One click on that notification takes you instantly to the live stream on your mobile device.

School News

Happy New Year to you all! Our wishes for you are a Healthy & Blessed New Year!

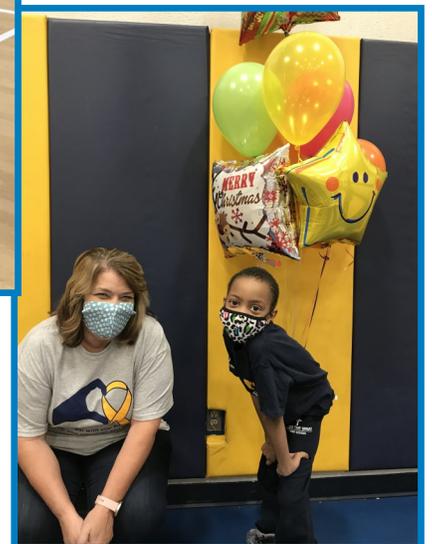

I wanted to share with you pictures of a special gathering we were able to have before Christmas break. We have a 2nd grader, Genesis, who is currently receiving treatment for cancer. During a rare break from treatment, Genesis and her parents were able to visit the school and see her teachers and some of her classmates.

Our school did a fundraiser for the family to help them during this difficult time. A T-shirt was designed especially for Genesis and sold to our families and friends. Genesis's family was overwhelmed with gratitude and thanked everyone for their generous giving and for their continued prayers.

I would like to personally thank everyone who participated in this fundraiser, and also thank Mehco Custom Printing for their generous donation of ALL the custom made T-shirts that were sold.

Please continue to keep Genesis and her family in your prayers.

God Bless,
Mrs. Denise Burns
Principal
