INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

The Baptism of Jesus is similar in purpose to our own. As Jesus was distinguished as the beloved Son in whom God is well pleased, so, too, are we. We share that same special favor with God and are brought into an intimate relationship with Him. Does this reality change how we feel about ourselves? It certainly does. Baptism forever changes us and calls us to the ministries of mercy & humility. God has formed each of us in our mother's womb and asks us to be a light for all people. We carry this light humbly as we know who ultimately has a claim on us and to whom we belong. We then are called to live our lives in imitation of Christ and become incarnate vessels of mercy. Our world needs to be touched by compassion and only we can complete the task.

PRAYER

Lord make me an instrument of Thy peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love. Where there is injury, pardon. Where there is doubt, faith. Where there is despair, hope. Where there is darkness, light. Where there is sadness, joy. O, Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love; for it is in giving that we receive, and it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Remember Me
Remember me in quiet days
When raindrops whisper on your pane,
But in your memories have no grief
Just let the joy we knew remain.
Remember me when evening stars
Look down on you with steadfast eyes,
Remember me if once you wake
To catch a glimpse of a red sunrise.
And when your thoughts do turn to me,
Know that I would not have you cry,
But live for me and laugh for me
For when you are happy so am I.
Remember an old joke we shared
Remember me when spring walks by
Think of me when you are glad,
And while you live, I shall not die.

First Reading: Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7

This section of the Book of Isaiah contains the words of a prophet who spoke to God's people exiled in Babylon. Four different times, the prophet speaks about a mysterious servant who will one day deliver the Israelites and make them great again. Christians have traditionally identified Jesus as this servant.

Second Reading: Acts 10:34-38

The Apostle Peter was originally skeptical about preaching the Gospel to non-Jews. But one day, the Holy Spirit summoned him to preach to a Gentile - - the pagan army officer Cornelius and his household. This passage presents Peter reflecting about the remarkable effect this experience had upon him personally.

Dear Parishioners,

On Saturday, January 4th, we celebrated a Memorial Mass for Carole Cerveny who died on December 31, 2019. Carole was a woman of faith who had a devotion to Mary, and on that day she died (New Year's Eve) and the day following, we celebrated the feast of Mary, the Mother of God. Carole spent many years in a nursing home, confined to a wheelchair, but we believe (based on Mary's Assumption), that she will finally be free from all that constrained her in this life. Carole loved to be with her family and cooked for them when she was able. May she now enjoy forever the feast of heaven.

Last Monday, January 6th, I had a funeral service for Jack Gabrenya. I had lead the family in prayers for his wife in 2018 and they were blessed with 68 years of marriage. Jack was remembered as someone who helped others in any way he could, even his neighbors, as testified to by a parishioner who knew him as one of her neighbors for many years. Jack was 92 and lived independently up until the last few weeks before his death. We extend our sympathies to his 3 children and remember his service as a US Navy Veteran of WWII.

We welcome Fr. Vesely who will celebrate the 4pm Mass this weekend. Remember to thank him for his 65 years of service to the Diocese of Cleveland. We will be publishing an article written about his anniversary in our next News & Views Newsletter. May he continue to bless the people of Mt. Alverna as he blesses us with his presence and prayers.

I had asked for your input regarding the lighting in the church, and as expected, I received differing opinions (they say that if you ask 5 priests their opinion on something, you'll get 12 in return!). Some felt the lighting was fine while others struggle reading the text and music in the Breaking Bread books. It really depends on where you are sitting in the church (and 95% of you sit in the same pew or at least general area every week...but of course I sit in the same seat every week too!). The truth is, the lighting is very inconsistent because of our fan-shaped church. From where I stand, I can certainly see many patches of darkness as I look out at the nave (where the pews are) from the sanctuary. It isn't too expensive to replace the bulbs with a higher wattage (though we'll still be using the cost-effective LED bulbs) and they will use extensions to bring the light further down so that it doesn't get trapped in the ceiling. Finally, the light will be a cooler (whiter) hue than what we use in the sanctuary which tends to use a warmer, more yellowish tint. I hope the result will be better visibility for aging eyes. Imagine the days when all they had were the flickering light of candles. I trust you will notice the difference when the bulbs are replaced in the coming weeks.

While I am grateful we haven't had many snow days so far, the grey of winter can cause our spirits to droop. Here's hoping the light of faith will keep you content and grateful in 2020.

Fr. James Schmitz
