CATHOLIC HOME MISSIONS
Support the Catholic Home Missions Appeal this weekend! Over 40% of dioceses in the United States and its territories are considered mission territories, because they are unable to fund essential pastoral activities needed in their communities. Your support funds religious education, seminary formation, lay ministry training, and other programs that build vibrant faith communities right here in the United States. Please be generous. LIVE THE LITURGY
INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

The cornerstone is the first stone that is laid and the stone that not only determines how the other stones are placed but the position of the entire structure. As human beings, we need a cornerstone or reference point so that our lives can be properly placed and positioned. Our cornerstone determines not only how we see ourselves but who we will become. Without a cornerstone or reference point, we will be disconnected, disoriented, and poorly positioned for effective action in our world. In order to be the children of God we are, Jesus Christ needs to be our cornerstone and the reference point for all that we do. He alone is the Good Shepherd who can guide through life's questions and challenges, bringing us to proper pasture. Without this proper base, we can easily fall into the trap of self centeredness and quickly lose our way. If that happens, then moral principles, proper conduct, justice, wisdom, and virtue will be difficult to find. We need to listen to the right voices and allow God to show us how to build our house well. Salvation only comes from God and only God will protect us, no matter the cost.

First Reading: Acts 4:8-12

Early in the Acts of the Apostles, Peter and John healed a lame man who sat begging each day at the temple gate. This miracle led to their arrest, and they were brought before the Sanhedrin. In today's passage, we hear Peter speaking boldly about Jesus to these Jewish leaders. In these few sentence, Peter presents the very heart of the Christian message.

Second Reading: 1 John 3:1-2

During this Easter Season, we are reading from the first letter of John. Today's passage reminds us about something both John and Paul emphasized: Jesus had made it possible for us to be God's sons and daughters, not just in some future life, but here and now

Every week we pray for those discerning a vocation in religious life.

ST. LEO THE GREAT- CLEVELAND, OHIO

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners,

On Saturday, April 17th, I had a funeral service for Suzanne Kravec, a parishioner who died back in January of this year, but whose funeral was scheduled later due to COVID restrictions at that time. She was 64 years old. We extend our sympathies to her husband Frank of 46 years and to her siblings. May she and all who believed in the resurrection of the Lord, rest in Christ's peace.

It was 20 years ago today that my mom died. As I think of her daily, it becomes more & more difficult to comprehend that she has been gone for so long. She was diagnosed with colon cancer on July 1, 1999 and while the news that the cancer was extensive and terminal, we were grateful that she lived for nearly 2 more years. Many people have shared with me stories of certain "signs" they believe they have received from God, indicating that somehow his hand is at work during the most difficult events of our lives. For us, the sign was given concerning the date that she died. My mom had worked as the parish secretary at the parish where we all attended elementary school & attended Mass every Sunday, which was St. Mark in West Park. She died around 4am on April 25th, which is the feast of St. Mark, and that year, was also Secretary's Day. As St. John Paul II said, for those with faith, there are no coincidences with God. So that is our sign. I have a large statue of St. Mark which had been stored away at a cemetery but which I was invited to take as I had attended St. Mark School. Also on the bottom of my chalice, there are the symbols of the 4 evangelists or gospel writers, Matthew, Mark, Luke & John. St. Mark is represented by a winged lion as this symbol comes from St. Mark's description of John the Baptist's voice "crying out in the wilderness." His voice is said to have sounded like that of a roaring lion. After my mom died, I took the diamond from her wedding ring & had it placed directly under the symbol for St. Mark on my chalice. When cleaning the chalice after Communion, I always swipe the diamond a couple times with the purificator (the cloth used in cleaning a chalice) as my way of saying hello to my mom. She used to attend daily Mass at St. Mark before she began the day's work there as the secretary and had also been a Eucharistic Minister. I could go on & on with stories about my mom (& I'll share one with you in the homily if you are attending Mass on Sunday the 25th) but suffice it to say that I continue to remain so grateful for all my mom did for us 5 children and so thankful that such a devout Catholic woman had great influence on my vocation as a priest. On the day I moved in to St. Leo's, I stopped at her grave (& mine) at Holy Cross Cemetery & asked for her prayers. I believe she has offered many of them if my happiness at St. Leo's is any indication.

One more personal note today...my stepmother, married almost 15 years now to my dad, was in the hospital with double pneumonia & they discovered she also had a couple of heart attacks. At 101, we are grateful that she continues to be such a great companion for our dad who is nearly 94. Ironically, she was baptized at St. Mark (in her late 80's!) so may he pray for her too as she recovers from her recent illness.

Fr. James Schmitz

THE STORY OF SAINT JOSEPH THE WORKER

ST. JOSEPH THE WORKER

To foster deep devotion to Saint Joseph among Catholics, and in response to the "May Day" celebrations for workers sponsored by Communists, Pope Pius XII instituted the feast of Saint Joseph the Worker in 1955. This feast extends the long relationship between Joseph and the cause of workers in both Catholic faith and devotion. Beginning in the Book of Genesis, the dignity of human work has long been celebrated as a participation in the creative work of God. By work, humankind both fulfills the command found in Genesis to care for the earth (Gn 2:15) and to be productive in their labors. Saint Joseph, the carpenter and foster father of Jesus, is but one example of the holiness of human labor.

4TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

ST. LEO THE GREAT—CLEVELAND, OHIO

Volunteers from the Jr. High Religion Classes made lunches for St. Augustine Hunger Center during Lent. We are grateful to all the students who helped decorate the bags and students who made the lunches. Thanks also to all who contributed the food for the lunches and Miss Judy for her delivery service. God bless all of you for helping those in need!

Ms. Lahoud's kindergarten class learned a lot about caterpillars. They watched as the caterpillars turn into butterflies!

Then one exciting day they said goodbye and released them into nature. The students were in awe, and some were sad to see their friends go!

Guide Book & Directory Advertising Opportunity

Guide Book Publishing

We are in the process of updating our annual Guide Book & Directory for the church. This book will contain everything pertinent to our church: the various ministries, organizations, committees, activities, functions and events plus a complete directory of all members. This book is being provided and direct-mailed to each family at no cost to our church, and it is again being subsidized by local businesses that advertise. If you own or manage a business and would like to find out about advertising in our book, please call the Church Office. (216-661-1006)

Recent survey results by Guide Book Publishing show that 92.1% of families would rather patronize a Guide Book & Directory advertiser over a non-advertiser. It “will pay” to advertise in our new Guide Book & Directory.
