Every week we pray for those discerning a vocation in religious life.

Benjamin Jackson
St. Mary, Hudson Senior, Borromeo

Pray that he may continue to persevere and that others may respond to God’s call.

First Reading: Acts 14:21-27

The Acts of the Apostles shows how the Easter message spread to all parts of the Mediterranean world. Today we hear a travelogue of part of one of Paul’s missionary Journeys that took him to modern-day Turkey. The mountainous terrain there made travel difficult and dangerous. The situation was made even worse because of the constant threat of robbers, flash floods and world animals.

Second Reading: Psalms 145:8-9, 10-11

Many people think that the book of Revelation gives secret information about future events, including the end of the world. But it was really intended to be a source of hope for Christians suffering persecution towards the end of the first century. The author vividly describes visions of how God will ultimately overcome all evil and bring all creation to its destiny.

Readings for the week May 15, 2022

- Sundays: Acts 14:21-27/Ps 145:8-9, 10-11, 12-13/Rv 21:1-5a/Jn 13:31-33a, 34-35
- Monday: Acts 14:5-18/Ps 115:1-2, 3-4, 15-16/Jn 14:21-26
- Tuesday: Acts 14:19-28/Ps 145:10-11, 12-13ab, 21/Jn 14:27-31a
- Wednesday: Acts 15:1-6/Ps 122:1-2, 3-4ab, 4cd-5/Jn 15:1-8
- Thursday: Acts 15:7-21/Ps 96:1-2a, 2b-3, 10/Jn 15:9-11
- Friday: Acts 15:22-31/Ps 57:8-9, 10 and 12/Jn 15:12-17
- Saturday: Acts 16:1-10/Ps 100:1b-2, 3, 5/Jn 15:18-21

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

May 15, 2022 | 5th Sunday of Easter

“It is necessary for us to undergo many hardships to enter the Kingdom of God.” Many folks really work very hard to circumvent difficult situations. We prefer the easier way around something, rather than risk inconvenience, hurt or prolonged suffering. It’s no wonder euthanasia is rapidly becoming acceptable around the world. Through purely human eyes, there is no issue bypassing the inevitable, taking control and bringing things more swiftly to a place of peace. If this is the way God sees things, then why does Jesus make such a big deal helping us understand the experience of suffering and embrace it? God’s wisdom clearly takes us in another direction.

Imagine if we were able to eradicate ALL hardship and suffering. Where would we be? As we look at our own journeys, many of our solid more growth producing life lessons have been born of suffering, disappointment, inconvenience, darkness, and despair. There is something sacred about all of these experiences as God uses them to create something new. Envisioning a life without hardship and suffering brings us to a vision where everything is flat-lined and dull. As much as hardship and suffering are difficult crosses to bear, not taking them up runs the risk of us becoming shallow, empty, and lifeless. Helen Keller remarks that, “a happy life consists not in the absence but in the mastery of hardships.” What an incredibly wise insight! Many really successful people and saints were brought to their station in life because they suffered. Suffering teaches us about what’s important and propels us to search the depths of our souls for resources and strength we never would have known before.

This is especially true when we love as Jesus asks us to love. Love, perhaps above any other experience, can cause us great hardship, pain, and suffering especially when it’s authentic and unconditional. While it can thrust us into an incredible experience of God and life on one hand, it can bruise and wound us deeply on the other. Mastering the art of love is the secret to living life well, walking in the presence of God and investing in the joy of the Gospel. Love and suffering walk hand in hand. Compromising one will compromise the other. Maybe that’s why Jesus spent so much time convincing us to accept both.

Eucharistic Adoration

Please join us the First Friday of every month from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM. St. Leo the Great has had a long history of Eucharistic Adoration of First Fridays. Part of our Commitment as a parish is that when we have Adoration, Jesus in the Eucharist should not be left alone. We realize we are still in the midst of the pandemic, but we need your presence for as much or as little amount of time as you are able to spend in the presence of Jesus. The Eucharistic Adoration will conclude with Benediction at 5:00 PM. Can you spend just one hour, once a month with Jesus? Our next First Friday Eucharistic Adoration will be June 3 from 9:00 am to 4:45 pm.

ROSARY

The month of May is devoted to the Blessed Virgin Mary. Please join us in honoring Mary with the recitation of the rosary in the Marian shrine at 7:00 p.m. on Thursday, May 19th. Please bring a lawn chair as limited seating is available. In the event of inclement weather, the rosary will be said in church.

ST. LEO THE GREAT- CLEVELAND, OHIO

Dear Parishioners,

Our long-awaited pilgrimage to the Holy Land is finally upon us. There will be 35 of us making this trip so please keep us in your prayers for a safe, enjoyable and spiritual journey. I'm sure there will be pictures and stories to share upon our return. I'm also anticipating a trip to Rome next year so keep that in mind if you're interested in the history, beauty (and food) of the Eternal City.

Our Holy Father Pope Francis has announced that Father Michael Woost, a priest of the Diocese of Cleveland, will be ordained as an Auxiliary Bishop for our Diocese on August 4, 2022 at the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist in downtown Cleveland. I was in the seminary with Bishop-Elect Woost and also know well his two brothers, Father Thomas and Father David, who are also priests of the Diocese. Father David Woost celebrated the funeral for my aunt a couple of months ago and is the Pastor of Divine Word in Kirtland. Father Thomas Woost was still in elementary school when I was in the major seminary but is now Pastor of St. Brendan Church in North Olmsted. I also knew their mother well as she was a member of St. Mary of the Falls Church in Olmsted Falls where I was first assigned after my ordination. So I am happy to congratulate Bishop-Elect Woost on his upcoming ordination. An Auxiliary Bishop is one who assists the main Bishop of a Diocese, in our case, Bishop Malesic, who is called the "Ordinary" bishop of the Diocese. We are also blessed to have Retired Bishop Roger Gries, former Abbot of the Benedictine Monastery and Retired Bishop Martin Amos, former Bishop or "Bishop Emeritus" of Davenport, Iowa, who also generously assist Bishop Malesic, especially by celebrating the Sacrament of Confirmation at the many parishes of our Diocese. So we are very blessed by these generous men, each of whom are well respected by the clergy of the Diocese.

Speaking of Confirmation, I have been talking to Deacon Pat & Joan Berigan, as well as to Macrina Dodson, a longtime teacher in our parish school and pastoral minister, and to Joann Deranek, our PSR Coordinator, on how we might adjust our sacramental programs to make them more "evangelical." I have spoken about this before but many in the Catholic Church have come to see that we have been very good about catechizing or teaching the Catholic Faith to our children, but often times without the necessary evangelization that necessarily goes with it. To evangelize means to introduce and invite others into a relationship with God, especially through a friendship with Christ, who has revealed God our Father to us and sent us the Holy Spirit so that we might have the wisdom and grace to be in a loving relationship with the Father and the Son. The book review that we did over Zoom during the COVID months was called "Forming Intentional Disciples," and emphasized again the need for the Church to not just teach the faith to others but to evangelize or help others to enter into a relationship with the God whom we are teaching about. So these ministers and I are discussing ways in which we can better include this dimension of evangelization into our religious education and sacramental programs. This would include a focus especially on preparing the youth of our parish for the Sacraments of the Eucharist (First Communion) and Confirmation, typically received in the 2nd & 8th grades, respectively. We will be sure to share more of this plan with you in the coming months but it will likely mean that we take a different approach to how we prepare the young for these sacraments. We need to stress the importance of not just learning facts about the Catholic faith but of developing a personal relationship with God through Christ. Both are equally important and you can't really have one without the other. Both catechism and evangelism need to be integrated together if one is to live out their religious faith in a way that is lifelong and which can be practiced in this life for preparation for the eternal life to come. This is needed not just for our young people but for all the disciples of Christ in our parish community. Pray that, as leaders and servants of the parish, we might be guided by the Holy Spirit in this important endeavor.

Fr. James Schmitz

St. Margaret of Cortona | May 16

Though St. Margaret of Cortona (1247 – 1297) is today known as being an incredibly pious Catholic, she didn't start out that way. Born into a farming family in Laviano, Tuscany, her mother died when St. Margaret was seven. Her father remarried, but life with her stepmother was so difficult that St. Margaret moved out of the home and instead chose to live with a man named Arsenio, though they weren't married. They had been living together for nine years when she gave birth to a son. Knowing in her heart that this wasn't the life that God intended for her to have, she prayed for purity.

One day while waiting for Arsenio, his dog led her into the forest where she found Arsenio murdered. So shocked was St. Margaret that she fell into a life of penance. She and her son returned to Laviano, but still found her stepmother to be as unwelcoming as ever. They then went to Cortona, and eventually her son became a friar.

Three years after her conversion, St. Margaret followed in her son's footsteps and became a Franciscan tertiary. During her life, St. Margaret established a hospital and founded a congregation of tertiary sisters. She was canonized in 1728.
