ROSARY

Please, join us in honoring Mary with the recitation of the rosary in the Marian shrine on Monday, September 19th, at 7:00p.m. Please bring a lawn chair as limited seating is available.

In the event of inclement weather, the rosary will be said in the church.

Please help the St. Vincent de Paul Outreach Organization help others! Through the work of the St. Vincent de Paul Outreach Program we provide assistance to individuals and families throughout the area and parish. The need continues to grow. Help us help them by donating to the poor boxes located at the entrances of the church or put your donation in an envelope and mark it "SVPD" and drop it in the collection basket or take it to the rectory. We thank you for your continued support.

WE NEED YOU

We can't have our parish festival without volunteers! Volunteer sign-up sheets will be in the main vestibule of the church—a little help can help a lot.

If you have yet to see the new icon installed above the altar in our chapel area do be sure you pay a visit to appreciate the beauty and intricate design of "The Mystical Supper" that was graciously purchased and donated to the church by Allen Morinec.

While you are there in Adoration of the Eucharist and nourishing your relationship with Christ we welcome you to make wonderful use the new books from Word on Fire that can be found in the chapel. The Holy Hour offers hymns, poetry, prayers, and reflections selected from over 2000 years of Catholic traditions to serve us in meditation and the mindfulness we all need and crave. Eucharist by Bishop Robert Barron reintroduces us to the ancient meaning and power found in the Eucharist as well as grace that is found in Communion. 'Fulton Sheen once wrote that the purpose of the Holy Hour—a sustained, uninterrupted hour of prayer in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament—is to encourage a deep personal encounter with Christ. "Looking at the Eucharistic Lord for an hour," he wrote, "transforms the heart in a mysterious way."

ENCOURAGE A DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

September 18, 2022 | 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Gospel Meditation

“You cannot serve both God and mammon.” Merriam-Webster defines mammon as material wealth or possessions, especially having a debasing influence. While God does not take issue with our need to use money for the business of our lives, there can be a problem with the attitudes we bring to it. We can easily become so preoccupied and obsessed with money that it becomes the real “god” we worship. Do we serve mammon instead of God? In their book, Wealth, Riches and Money, Craig Hill and Earl Pitts outline symptoms of mammon’s influence in our lives. Some of these are worry and anxiety over money, money mismanagement, fear over “never having enough,” an “I can’t afford it” mentality, impulse buying, stinginess, greed, debt, and discontent. Many of the things on that list can consume us to the point that we are distracted from what we really need to be doing. Many people spend an inordinate amount of time worrying about money and it becomes the source of their worst fears. If we are honest with ourselves, we need to admit that we place far more emphasis on our material securities than we ought. In fact, we have actually convinced ourselves that we cannot live without it. Are we that certain about the presence of God? Many of the world’s problems, especially those involving inequity and injustice, result from conflicts about money. Many equate money with happiness. Those successful in accumulating large amounts of it quickly realize just how wrong they are. “Your ultimate allegiance is not to the government, not to the state, not to nation, not to any man-made institution. The Christian owes his ultimate allegiance to God, and if any earthly institution conflicts with God’s will it is your Christian duty to take a stand against it. You must never allow the transitory evanescent demands of man-made institutions to take precedence over the eternal demands of the Almighty God (Martin Luther King, Jr.)” This is the point Jesus is trying to make. Unfortunately, when we look around our man-made kingdoms are far more prevalent than God’s kingdom. When we start seeing greater evidence of justice, equity, dignity, respect, opportunity, gentleness, holiness, solidarity, honesty, simplicity, care for creation, and a decrease in ambition, then we will know that God’s kingdom is being served. We will be doing what we are supposed to do.

SEEING GOD IN OUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Fixing the Scales

Most people don’t intend on being selfish. The reality of selfishness usually lies in the grey shades of our decision-making. We would never go out of our way to kick a homeless person begging by the highway exit. We would never steal money from our parish collection plate.

But would we drive past the homeless person without even extending a thought or a prayer toward his need? Would we justify stinginess in time, talent, and treasure because of our own comfort? We all have been guilty of transgressions such as these in the past. We will fall again in the future.

Most of the evil in this world can be traced back to a feeling of entitlement that lurks deep within each of us — a frantic concern for our own good that we find difficult to shake. The same instinct that compelled Eve to reach for the fruit that would give her the knowledge of good and evil still compels people to focus on what they are owed, on what they have “earned,” on what they have “coming to them.” We are so tempted to fix the scales. We are so tempted to keep score.

We would do well to remember that our God is not a God who keeps score. He is not a God who acts entitled or who tacks on extra dues, taking as much as He can get. He is a God who seats the lowly with princes. He is a God who seeks avenues for reconciliation and mercy.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MT

Question:

Why do we celebrate Catechetical Sunday?

Answer: The mission of the church reflects the mission of Jesus to teach, preach, heal, and forgive. Through these acts, Jesus shares the good news of salvation and invites all people to share in the life and love of God. The church continues this mission in all its ministries, but especially, and perhaps most importantly, through catechesis. Catechetical Sunday is celebrated on the third Sunday of September. The task of handing on the Gospel is entrusted to the whole community, who by word and example, form young and new members in the way of the Gospel. Parish programs assist parents in teaching the basics of faith through liturgical experience, instruction, and faith formation. This ministry is essential for the parish to grow, for individuals to develop as believers, and for the ongoing spiritual formation of the whole community. It reminds the church that preaching the Gospel and growing in faith are essential to our sacramental practice and our liturgical prayer.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners,

I anointed Theresa Kowal, mother Anthony, Joe, & Kathy Kowal (Joe & Kathy are from our parish) back in July. We celebrated the Mass of Christian Burial for her on Friday, September 9th. I visited her in the home she lived in for many years. She was a very devout Catholic and proof of that was found in a letter she wrote to her grandson when he graduated from elementary school: "Don't forget who you are—a Christian. Live up to those standards that you were brought up with. Christ is always there for you when you need him. Talk to him. I'm always talking to him and the saints." We pray that Theresa will be able now to talk to Christ in person, and to her fellow saints. May she rest in God's peace.

Our first Faith Formation Session last Sunday went very well for the young people in our parish who do not attend our parish school or who are preparing for the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation this year. We are grateful to their parents for living out the promise they made at the baptism of their children to raise them in the practice of the faith. They will be attending these conversational gatherings in the Parish Center three Sundays a month from 9:30am until 10:45am, and then will be joining us for the 11am Mass (unless they attend the 8am Mass instead). If you have children whom you would like to participate in these sessions, please call the rectory office. Since this is "Catechetical Sunday," at the 11am Mass, we will be asking God's blessings on those in our parish who teach and pass on our Catholic Faith to the young people of our parish. We are grateful for their response to the call of Jesus to "preach the gospel to all."

Congratulations to the parents of James Martini who will be baptized this weekend after the 11am Mass. May he too come to know the love of Christ through the parents who have given him life.

Attempting to pick up the pieces of one's life after the tragedy of divorce is an area that can impact a person's relationship with God and the Church. One of the significant issues that a person faces is their place in the Church. Does the Church still care about me even though I am divorced? Am I allowed to go to Mass? Can I receive communion? How can the Church help me heal? If I decide to marry again, what do I have to do? The Tribunal of the Diocese of Cleveland offers its First Step Program to help individuals deal with these questions in order to renew and/or strengthen their relationship with God and the Church. The Tribunal is pleased to be able to assist those in need of a declaration of invalidity of a marriage. We now have specially-trained ministers, called Case Specialists, to assist people with their cases. The participants attend a general meeting and follow-up with a Case Specialist to submit the case. This program is offered to help everyone, especially those who have experienced divorce, learn more about Catholic teaching regarding marriage, divorce, and remarriage. In any endeavor, taking the "first step" is always the most difficult. The First Step Program helps individuals to navigate the path of healing and closure. The participants attend the general meeting, and follow-up with their procurator to submit the case. For more information see Tribunal website. Note that the Diocese of Cleveland no longer requires any fees for this process. The next First Step Program will be held on Tuesday, 27 September 2022, at St. Ambrose Parish, Brunswick, at 7:00 pm. For more information call Lynette Tait at the Tribunal: 216-696-6525/800-869-6525, ext. 4000.
