DIOCESAN WIDE EVENING OF CONFESSION

Wednesday March 8 from 5:00p-8:00p at all parishes

An examination of conscience: Do I love God above everything else? Am I humble? Do I depend on God as I should? Am I prideful? Do I try to make the world revolve around me? Do I pray every day? Do I go to Mass every Sunday and Holy Day? Do I devote myself to growing in faith? Am I forgiving? Do I harbor grudges, resentments – do I take delight in the misfortunes of others? Do I judge others, label others, exclude others, and condemn others? Is my life ruled by anger, jealousy, envy, or impatience? Find more at dioceseofcleveland.org

MEMORIES

Back in earlier days before it was common to receive Communion in the hand, our second grade class would practice with Sister for our big day of First Holy Communion. We did this by Sister using a Necco wafer on our tongue. Needless to say, we had countless trials and errors!!

—Joan Wheeler

Do you have a favorite memory from the past 75 years? If so, please submit it to nzola@leothegreat.org.

We also welcome photos throughout the year of the people and events taking place. Please forward your photos to photos@leothegreat.org.

The current church has undergone many changes since the original building was built in 1969. Some of those changes include removing a side altar which was located in the sanctuary near the sacristy. Chairs replaced the pews facing the side altar. The marble Communion rail that circled the sanctuary was removed. The emerald green carpeting was replaced with a softer green and then replaced with the current marble.

Praying the Stations of the Cross reminds us that we are not alone in our suffering: Jesus suffers with us. He chose to embrace every aspect of human life, including suffering and death. Spend 20 powerful minutes meditating on these reminders of his Passion every Friday during Lent at 7:00p in the church.

READINGS FOR THE WEEK

FIRST READING: GENESIS 12:1-4

The first 11 chapters in Genesis have very little historical foundation but have religious truths in parable forms. Today we begin the 21st chapter which contains stories with identifiable historical roots. The first of these is the call of Abraham, whose original name was "Abram".

SECOND READING: 2 TIMOTHY 1:8-10

The second letter to Timothy, although probably written some 30 years after Paul's death, was written in his name. This was an acceptable practice at that time. It was not a forgery, but an acknowledged way of continuing someone's spirit and authority. In this passage the author encourages the readers in the face of trials.

SAMUELE CEFARATTI
ST. CLARE, LYNDHURST
SECOND YEAR, BORROMEO

Every week we pray for those discerning a vocation in religious life. Pray that they may continue to persevere and that others may respond to God's call.

ENCOURAGE A DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

As a kid I remember looking at my sister and thinking, “No man is ever going to marry her. She is way too...my sister!” I couldn’t see her as anything except my goofy, emotional, cooties-laden sister. Years later, on her wedding day, I remember seeing how her husband looked at her, he was totally in love with her, his watery eyes full of overwhelmed joy, drinking in her beauty and grace. He was the one who actually saw her. Blinded by familiarity, I had not been able to see her until now. She was glorious. I finally saw how beautiful my sister really was.

Jesus is transfigured before Peter, James, and John. His face shone like the sun and his clothes dazzle with heavenly light. If it’s a miracle, it is so related to the apostles’ perception of the glory of Jesus. The physical spectacle reveals how the Father perceives the Son, so to speak: “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well-pleased; listen to him.” The Son is always bathed in the Father’s love. It’s only just now that they finally perceive it.

Who could possibly give his or her heart totally to Jesus? If we perceive him to be just another teacher, symbol, or moral example, we can’t. But if the Holy Spirit gives us eyes to see that he is the Beloved Son of God, who makes our humanity not just pleasing to God but filled with glory ... then who can resist him? Perhaps only the lovers are the ones who properly see. — Father John Muir

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Beyond Your Comfort Zone

By: Tracy Earl Welliver

Catherine Doherty said, “Yes, stewardship pertains to everything and I am responsible for my part of that everything.” I am reminded of that quote when I read the words from Paul’s Second Letter to Timothy, “Beloved: Bear your share of hardship for the gospel with the strength that comes from God.” Both point to our own responsibility as a disciple, as well as the reality that we are not alone. We live with God in community. We each have our part to play in the kingdom of God.

Lent is an important time to focus on how our stewardship way of life causes us to sacrifice and, at times, experience hardship. If we find that we never seem to feel our sacrifice, then it is a good time to ask ourselves if we really are fully living as good stewards, cultivating what we have been given, and then offering it all back to God. If we only give from our excess, then we will never understand the meaning behind the words of St. Paul and Catherine Doherty.

This is why we must challenge ourselves. We must push ourselves to go that extra mile. It really is a way of exercising our stewardship muscles. So as this Lenten season is still in its first weeks, what can you attempt to do that really pushes you out of your comfort zone? Can you double or triple your prayer time during the season? Can you search your household and give to charity more than just things you don’t need anymore, but also things you still want? Is there someone to visit a few times before Easter than can no longer get out? Whatever it is, the strength will come from God to take greater care of your part of his everything.

PRACTICING CATHOLIC

The Long Walk

By: Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The walk down from Mount Tabor after the Transfiguration must have been a long one for Peter, James, and John. How differently they must have viewed the world with the eyes that had seen what they had just seen. How uncertain they must have been.

I think it’s important to remember that, on the mountain, they were amazed, yes — but first, they were afraid. We are given the image of these three grown men — these saints, these giants of salvation history — cowering in fear at the voice of God. It was not until Jesus touched them that they could even bear to look up.

Christ was transfigured on Tabor, but in a way, the disciples were transfigured as well. We are all changed by what we see and what we hear. That change can be hard because knowledge is hard. Truth is hard. Sometimes cowering is easier.

Go forth, God told Abram. I will make of you a great nation.

Rise, Christ told his disciples. And do not be afraid.

I spend too much time cowering in fear at the voice of God. I cower even when the voice whispers into my heart instead of booming from the clouds. When it’s the start of a hard day or a tough conversation. When it’s the middle of a half-finished battle, big or small. When I know where Christ is and what he is asking, but I’m afraid because the walk down the mountain is so long, and the world that awaits me is so uncertain.

“Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.”

— Psalm 33

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners,

I expressed our sympathies to the family of Yukiko “Kate” Ward, whose funeral Mass I celebrated on Friday, February 24th. Kate was married for 42 years and had 2 sons and 2 grandchildren. She worked as a finance manager for different Catholic churches. Most interesting about her life was that she joined the Catholic Church in Japan and then came to the United States in order to become more involved with the Church. In this way, she was something of a “missionary” as she witnessed her faith in this country. May she rest now in God’s peace.

This past Monday, February 27th, I also celebrated the funeral of Ernestine Wisniewski, mother of Karen Baracz and her brother Richard (deceased). She was also a grandmother of 4, great-grandmother of 7 and great-great grandmother of one. “Ernie” was known for welcoming all to her home, especially her family. She was spoken of as being the “heart and sunshine” of the family. She was married to her husband Elmer (also deceased) for 73 years! They enjoyed traveling together, especially to Florida, where they both led very active lives & were active members of the Church. May they both enjoy the heart and sunshine of heaven, who is God.

As we celebrate our 75th Anniversary this year, I continue to learn more about the history of our parish. I heard a gentleman come in the front office a couple of weeks ago & he told the Office Manager, Nina Capone, that his dad was the architect for our church. So I went out to talk with him. His father’s name was Dick Rauschenbach of Rauschenbach, Casini & Urban Architects & Engineers in Independence, Ohio. It was great talking to him. I hope we can get him to tell us a bit more about his father’s work and I’ll be happy to share that with you.

Our Fish Fry’s continue to be a great success as many come to enjoy such good food at very reasonable prices. As I write this, I especially look forward to the lobster dinner that will be an option this week (March 3rd). I hope you all have a chance to come enjoy the delicious food & the opportunity to see fellow parishioners & our neighbors. Thanks to all who work hard each week to make this a staple of our Lenten observance each year.

Although I mentioned this at the 7pm Mass on Ash Wednesday, I want to again wish Deacon Pat Berigan a belated Happy Birthday. He turned 70 on Ash Wednesday but due to that day of fast & abstinence was not able to enjoy a really hearty birthday meal so he’s been trying to catch up ever since. Though we tease each other a lot & share many laughs and meals during the week, I can never tell him and his wife Joan how much I appreciate their ministry here at St. Leo’s & enjoy their friendship. They came here just when Fr. Vesely was leaving St. Leo’s to move into Mt. Augustine so God provided me with their presence and assistance at just the right time. It is a real joy for me to have them here and I know how much you gain from their presence as well. I told Deacon Pat that his 70th birthday coincides with a change in his retirement age which I have moved up to age 85 (to ensure he is still here until I am able to retire). Actually I will have only 12 more years but just in case the Bishop asks me to give him a couple more years, I’d like to ensure the Berigan’s are still here if I am as well. I was able to meet their 4 children & enjoy a birthday dinner with the whole Berigan family. What a great family Deacon Pat & Joan raised. Though I won’t tell you the year of Joan’s birth, I can tell you that her birthday is August 30th and that her husband has caught up with her.
