FIRST READING: 2 Chronicles 36:14-16, 19-23

The second book of Chronicles is part of a series which traces Jewish history from its beginning down to the end of the exile in Babylon, five centuries before Christ. Today's reading is the conclusion of the book. It summarizes the reasons for the exile and tells how it ended after 70 years. Second Chronicles was placed last in the Jewish bible. When we hear the final words of this reading, we hear how the Jewish Scriptures conclude on a positive note.

SECOND READING: Ephesians 2:4-10

Ephesus is located on the western coast of what is today Turkey. The author of this letter to the Christians in Ephesus writes about the saving power of God that is available to both Jews and non-Jews. Today's passage reminds us that salvation is God's gift alone. "Gift" is the root meaning of the word "grace."

REFLECTIONS BY LUKE BROWN | SACRED HEART COUNSELING

In my line of work, I often hear people say that they should be happy. "I have food and shelter while there are hungry kids in the world. I have everything I need. I am anxious and depressed while I should be grateful and happy." While we pray for and help those less fortunate, it does not mean that our suffering is irrelevant or painless. We will all experience suffering, pain, and hardship in this life. Gratitude is a great discipline to practice, but we sometimes take it too far and use it as a reason to dismiss our pain and suffering. We are also guilty at times of exaggerating our suffering or letting it excuse vice and selfishness. That being said, we also need to acknowledge and care for the suffering that we experience. Sometimes, that acknowledgement and care comes by managing our road rage and remaining civil or sacrificing our favorite restaurant for our spouse's favorite. Some suffering can be acknowledged, sacrificed easily, and moved on from. However, there are times that we are carrying heavy burdens or struggling with mental illness that needs more intensive care and attention. This care can come in many forms such as support groups, intentional conversations with friends, counseling, or talking with a priest. Gratitude can keep us humble, content, and focused on God, but it is often not enough for problems like complex trauma in our past, difficulties in our relationships, depression, or anxiety. If these words resonate with you, consider giving more care and attention to your suffering and finding the potential relief and healing that you need. — Luke Brown

5 SHORT PRAYERS FOR LENT

If you don't have a lot of time to set aside to pray or feel like you have the right words to pray, don't worry! God knows your heart and any length of prayer is powerful! These short prayers can be used daily or during moments of reflection and meditation throughout the Lenten season to enhance your spiritual journey.

Prayer for Repentance:

"Dear Lord, during this Lenten season, help me to recognize my sins and turn my heart toward you in genuine repentance. Grant me the strength to make amends and grow in your grace. Amen."

Prayer for Guidance:

"Heavenly Father, as I embark on this Lenten journey, guide my steps and illuminate my path with your wisdom. May your Word be a lamp to my feet and a light to my soul. In Jesus' name, I pray. Amen."

Prayer for Spiritual Renewal:

"Lord Jesus, during Lent, I seek spiritual renewal and a deeper connection with you. Fill me with your Holy Spirit, cleanse my heart, and draw me closer to your love and grace. Amen."

Prayer for Self-Denial:

"Gracious God, as I practice selfdenial during Lent, may I grow in humility and reliance on you. Help me to turn away from worldly distractions and focus on your presence and purpose. Amen."

Prayer for Compassion:

"Dear God, during this Lenten season, open my heart to the needs of others. May I reflect your love and compassion in my actions, serving those who are suffering or in need. In Jesus' name, I pray. Amen."

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

On March 1st we celebrated the life of Leslie Hahn, the husband of parishioner Lisa Hahn. Leslie or "Dutch" as he was known, had not been in good health for many years but his death still was unexpected. He and Lisa joined me in a trip to Italy several years ago and so I had the chance to get to know him a bit as he was not Catholic and I'm grateful for that opportunity. He was a good humored & kind man and highly thought of by many. Dutch and Lisa have 2 daughters and 2 grandchildren. He served as a Captain in the Army and also was a Cleveland Police Office for 29 years. Dutch was a member of a German Men's choir and was an Eagle Scout as well. Please remember him in prayer and Lisa as well as she faces this time of grief and transition.

This past Tuesday I also celebrated a funeral Mass for Jeanette Klaehn, a longtime member off our parish. Jeanette was 96 years old but would still attend Mass here when she was able. She would always be sure to come up to me to say hello and to assure me that she was praying for me each day, which I always appreciated. In fact when I heard of her passing, I worried for a moment about my daily intercessor, but then quickly remembered that her prayers for me now will be much more powerful as she offers them in the presence of God himself. Jeanette told me that because of her age, she was unable to do much at home so she prayed several rosaries a day. I'm sure those prayers to the Blessed Mother did much good for her and for those she prayed for. We extend our sympathy to her son Thomas. She was married to Leo (deceased) and also had a son named James (also deceased). May she rest in God's peace.

I've been meaning to remind you about the proper way of receiving Holy Communion. Keeping in mind that this is the Sacred Body and Blood of Christ, His Real Presence we are receiving, the Church asks us to bow our head while the person ahead of you is receiving, then to place one hand over the other (if not receiving directly on your tongue) and say "Amen" as you receive the host and reverently place it in your mouth. You generally receive the Eucharist very reverently but the one suggestion I would make is this: if you only have one hand free because you are carrying a baby or using a cane for example, you may want to consider receiving Holy Communion on your tongue. To use only one hand when putting the Sacred host in your mouth just looks irreverent to me, even though you don't intend this. Perhaps this is because we use one hand to pop a piece of candy in our mouth or to chew on some snack. In fact for hundreds of years people only received the host directly on the tongue in order to express their reverence for this great Sacrament, even though we are still touching the Body of Christ either way, with our tongue or with our hand(s). Of course I won't say anything to you or try to make you feel singled out if you still use just one hand but it's just something I've been wanting to mention for some time, especially during a time when so many show disbelief or disrespect for this great Sacrament. How grateful we should be to receive the Real Presence of Christ within us each week for "Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his Blood, you will have no life within you."

It's been a joy to hear the confessions of our children during Lent and to have had many come to the Sacrament on the Evening of Confessions. May God grant his mercy to us all.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The Uncomfortable Life in The Light

If you have ever been a woman over the age of 30 who stayed in a budget motel, you know the horror of awakening in a dark room, switching on the bathroom lights and screaming at the shriveled-up she-witch you find hiding there.

And you know the feeling of disappointment that blooms in the pit of your stomach as you realize the shriveled-up she-witch is your own reflection staring back at you beneath the merciless glare of overhead fluorescent lighting.

You may also know the relief of visiting a nice restaurant after dark and catching sight of yourself in the mirror. You lean forward, mesmerized by how different — how matte! How smooth! — the contours of your face look in what we call "forgiving light." But this turn of phrase is simply not correct. It is not light, and it does not forgive. It is darkness, and it merely conceals.

But it feels so much better, doesn't it? Salvation can feel like condemnation, when being lost is all you know. Sometimes it is so much more comfortable to live lost in the shadows.

It is possible to yearn for darkness. Darkness gives cover to so many things. The light has a harshness that can almost seem demanding, exposing. Light can bleach. Light can burn.

"Is this really me?" you think in that budget hotel bathroom, examining acne scars you never saw before and crow's feet that seem to have developed overnight. The answer is yes. Yes, that is really you, all of it, every inch. There's nothing to be afraid of, just step into the light and own it.

"And this is the verdict, that the light came into the world, but people preferred darkness to light, because their works were evil." — John 3:19

SCHOOL FUNDRAISING PROGRAM

If you like to shop online visit schoolstore.com and shop over 400 National Brands online. When you purchase through SchoolStore.com as opposed to a direct website of a participating merchant a percentage of your purchase goes to support our parish school!

You can also support our teachers by donating a Caring for Classrooms gift card that help them purchase classroom materials throughout the year. Contact Nina at the Rectory Office or ncapone@leothegreat.org with any questions you might have.
