FIRST READING: Isaiah 50:4-7

Chapters 40-55 of the Book of Isaiah contain the message of a prophet who spoke to God's people during their exile in Babylon. Several times the prophet speaks about a servant who will one day deliver God's people. Because the Servant is portrayed as suffering, Christians have traditionally identified Jesus with him.

SECOND READING: Philippians 2:6-11

In the years following Christ's death and resurrection, Christians began to develop the prayers and hymns that would become part of their rituals. In today's passage from the letter to the Philippians, Paul appears to be quoting an early Christian hymn celebrating the dying and rising of Christ.

REFLECTIONS BY LUKE BROWN | SACRED HEART COUNSELING

It is Palm Sunday and there is only one week left of Lent! I pray that all of you have had a grace-filled Lent and find yourselves closer to the Lord through sacrifice and prayer. Speaking of prayer, this week I wanted to discuss silence. In today's world, silence is undervalued and sometimes hard to find. I found myself frustrated the other day when I fueled up my vehicle and the gas pump was even playing advertisements. As our world becomes more and more inundated with technology, accessibility, and immediate gratification, the amount of silence in our lives shrinks. I believe this is one of the reasons anxiety has increased dramatically in the last 20 years. Fear of missing out, constant availability via smartphone, and never ending entertainment at our fingertips are just a few things that have become a part of daily life for most people. If you do not have any silence in your life, I would encourage you to try a few different things. Driving with the radio off is a good way to start. Maybe try praying in a quiet part of your house and leave your phone in a different part of the house where you cannot hear it buzzing or beeping. If we do not take time for silence and we are constantly distracted, we lose our connection with God and with ourselves. It is often in the silence that we come to know God and ourselves. During this last week of Lent, consider making time for silence so that you can be better prepared to take in all that God has in store for you as we celebrate the Paschal Mystery. — LUKE BROWN

Last week, a few of our 8th Graders put together brown bag lunches that we decorated with cheerful images and inspiring messages to be distributed to the St. Augustine Hunger Center. “Thank you” to them for the time they volunteered to bring sunshine to someone’s day. Another “Thank You” goes out to all of you who contributed PB&J to this recent food drive. Your generosity allowed for the success of this mission.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners,

And so begins Holy Week today. We do not recreate the historical events that took place in Israel 2 millennia ago. But we do make present to ourselves today the memory of those all-important events which have literally transformed the world and which deal with our eternal life once we have left this world. So nothing is more important to us as Christians as what takes place this week in our churches, and in our hearts. Do we consider the magnitude of what we do here? Likely not. But that is the invitation extended to each of us this year.

Today, be sure to take palms when you enter the church and please hold them during our opening procession to signify that you are part of the crowd that welcomed Jesus into the holy city of Jerusalem where our salvation was worked out. Then again, feel yourself as part of the crowd that later cried out, "Crucify him!" as we again place ourselves in the crowd of people during the proclamation of the Passion (the story of Jesus' suffering and death). Ask God for the grace to enter into the mystery of what this week was all about for Jesus, but more importantly, what this week is all about for you, for the Church, and for the whole world.

Consider joining us on Holy Thursday as we celebrate the Mass of the Lord's Supper at 7pm. Watch as feet are washed, as an example to us of our call to service. Pray with Jesus (and indeed before him) as at the end of Mass, we process to the chapel altar with the Eucharist, the Real Presence of the one who asked his Father to let this cup of suffering pass him by, but who resigned himself to the Father's no.

On Good Friday, be present for the Solemn Celebration of the Lord's Passion at 3pm, which has 3 parts: the Liturgy of the Word (again, with the reading of the Passion but this time according to John), the Adoration and Veneration of the Cross, and the reception of Holy Communion. If you can't be present at 3pm, then perhaps you can pray the Stations of the Cross at 7pm instead. Remember that Good Friday is the 2nd and only other day of the entire year when the Church asks us to fast and abstain from meat.

And then the great celebration begins with the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday night at 8:30pm (remember there is no 4pm Vigil Mass). It is especially exciting to have 3 people this year who will be baptized, confirmed, and receive their First Holy Communion on this night! We pray that they may share in our joy as they now share in our faith. Mass on Easter Sunday will be at 8am and 11am.

On Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday, you can join us for Morning Prayer at 8:30am in the chapel area. The Blessing of Easter Food on Holy Saturday will be at 11:30am.

On Monday of this past week, I sent this notice to our School Parents and Staff:

By mutual agreement, Mrs. Burns will be moving on from her role as Principal of St. Leo the Great School for the 2024-25 school year. She will continue in her current position until the end of June 2024. We are grateful for what she has accomplished during the past 7 years with us and we wish her well in her future endeavors.

I will be working with the Education Department of the Diocese as we search for a new Principal and have assured the parents and teachers that I will be seeking their input.

PRACTICING CATHOLIC

The Whole Story

Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The Bible is a strange book.

It's one of the only books that most people never read in its entirety, even those who claim it as one of their favorites. It's also one of the only books that we feel comfortable chopping up and sectioning out. There's nothing wrong with that, really, until people start making wholesale judgments of divine revelation based on one tiny part of it. You can't base your belief system on a few lines from Leviticus and ignore the Gospels, just like you can't embrace the teachings of Jesus and ignore the Old Testament. You need to accept the whole story, in its entirety, or none of it means anything.

But it's hard, because accepting the whole story means patience. It means critical thinking. It requires endurance. It's easier just to throw a line from Leviticus at a problem and be done with it.

Holy Week reminds us that salvation history is a tapestry, not a collection of threads. As beautiful as the individual stitches might be, you won't appreciate the message unless you back up and look at the complete product. If we didn't have the whole story, Holy Thursday and Good Friday would be neither holy nor good. And without Holy Week, Easter morning means nothing — it's just a guy waking up.

How often in life do we find ourselves confused to the point of hopelessness, unable to make sense of it all? Overwhelmed by the pain and suffering that exists in this world, and for seemingly no reason. Some of us become so frustrated we throw up our hands and despair.

We need Easter. We need the whole story. We need to be patient.

"His disciples did not understand this at first, but when Jesus had been glorified they remembered that these things were written about him and that they had done this for him."* — John 12:16

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

By: Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

I read a story recently about a teacher who donated to one of her former students a kidney. This tremendous act of selflessness came about because the young person had lost most of the function his kidneys due to an illness. Literally, that teacher gave the gift of life to someone who wasn't her own child or another family member.

This is certainly radical stewardship. How far would you go to give of yourself so that another might live? Would you have to love him or her like your own child or parent? No one can deny it would be a difficult decision, especially if your giving put your own health at risk.

Reflecting on these things helps to provide some perspective on the crucifixion of Jesus. Not only did he suffer tremendously at the hands of the Romans, he gave his life for us so we might live forever. What does true stewardship look like? The cross is a symbol to us of total surrender.

When we are called to give of ourselves in ordinary ways in daily life we sometimes hesitate and think twice. Perhaps when we are unsure we should look to the cross and there we can find our strength. And then when the call comes to truly sacrifice and place our trust in God, we may have already developed a lifestyle that makes responding, "yes," that much easier.
