THE NATIVITY OF THE LORD

Our hearts are aglow with the joy of Christmas! Our senses are alive with the season, from the rich smells of evergreen and gingerbread to the feel of crisp air on our skin and the warmth of a loved one's embrace. At some point in the holiday hustle and bustle, take a few moments of quiet. In the silence, reflect on the other senses of the season. Imagine the cool damp of an animal stable, the earthy smell of hay and feed, and the crisp night air blowing in softly. Imagine kneeling beside an exhausted, joyful mother and a relieved, protective father. Imagine an infant wrapped in cloth scraps held out to your open arms. Imagine holding the infant Jesus. As his eyes meet yours, welcome into your heart the greatest gift of Christmas.

THE GIFT OF FAMILY

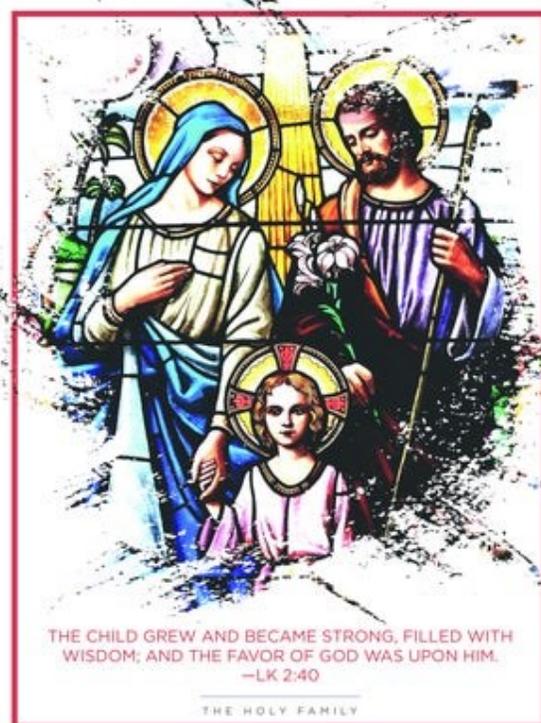

What a year it has been! How will we speak of these times a decade from now? As time goes by, our impressions of this past year will certainly change. How we feel today about dealing with a killer virus and all the chaos surrounding that is still fresh for all. I would assume that most of us right now are also holding those we love a little closer and hugging them a little harder. Hopefully, even if the fears and concerns of 2020 dissipate in the future, the way we feel toward our family should never leave us.

Stewardship is certainly about everything. God has given us so much, great and small, profound and common. One of the greatest gifts that all have received is family. Families take all shapes and sizes and some look very different than others. For some, family is a caretaker or temporary guardian. For others it is a friend when everyone else seems to have vanished. The bottom line is that, to quote a song from many years ago, "people need people."

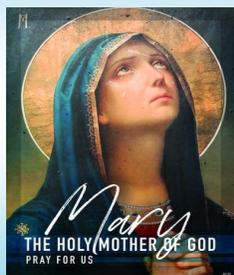

When God gave the world His only Son, the Incarnation did not come on a cloud or with a flash of light. He was born into a family. Jesus understood the gift of family all his life. Do you think that if having a family wasn't important God would have still included this in the plan of salvation?

As this year draws to a close, remember your stewardship begins and ends with the people closest to you. Don't misuse or take for granted this precious gift. God gives us gifts on purpose, even to His only begotten Son.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

First Reading: Genesis 15: 1-6: 21:1-3

In ancient Near Eastern culture, it was thought essential to have a male descendent to carry on the family line and inherit all that his parents had worked for. But the elderly Abraham and Sarah were still childless, which seemed to contradict God's earlier promise to them. Today's passage will tell us how this problem was resolved.

Second Reading: Hebrews 11:8, 11-12, 17-19

The author of the letter to the Hebrews frequently help up Old Testament heroes as models of faith. He did this because he was writing to a community whose faith was wavering. Today he present, as examples, Abraham and Sarah whose faith had survived severe testing.

ST. LEO THE GREAT- CLEVELAND, OHIO

Dear Parishioners,

Since many will be joining us via livestream for our sacred Christmas liturgies, I wanted to be sure that our beautiful nativity scene could be seen “up close & center” & so asked the Art & Environment people to put it right in front of the altar this year. In recent years the Church has asked us to keep the altar and what is placed on it as the main focus of the sanctuary since it is on that sacred table that we place the Body and Blood of Christ, and nothing is more important in our liturgical space than that. But at Christmas, what we celebrate is what the Church calls the “Incarnation” or the very real presence of God “in the flesh” as the divine God chooses to take on our human nature. In the liturgy, that same God becomes incarnate in the bread and wine we offer on the altar and which we receive into our bodies. Though many people fail to remember the “rubric” that is in italics on the page where the Creed is found in our hymnals, Deacon Pat & I make a conscious effort to bow when we say the words “For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.” Why are we (all) directed to do this? To show our profound respect for what we celebrate today...that the Son of God came down from heaven & became one of us. The significance of this can never be overstated. And so the priest & deacon also bow or genuflect after the priest repeats the words of Jesus, “This is my Body...this is the cup of my Blood.” May the manger scene you see displayed before our altar (a picture is on our website), be a reminder of the truth we are in awe of this day.

Not only can you see the pictures of former Christmases at St. Leo’s on display in the vestibule, but our website (leothegreat.org) also has a 10-minute YouTube video showing several pictures as well. We have also posted a Christmas concert held at our parish many years ago along with a list of the songs they are singing so you don’t want to miss that either. Thanks to parishioner John Sabol for putting these together for us to enjoy.

I want to thank you for your participation in our Adopt a Child program this year (headed by John’s wife, Jeanne Sabol). We collected a total of $3,475 (a total of $4,075 with the matching funds grant from the First Catholic Slovak Ladies Association)! Last year we collected $2100, so you were especially generous this year. In addition, gift cards in the amount of $1920 were collected and approximately 300 gifts were distributed to children. You also continued to be faithful to your contributions to the parish this year, even when you couldn’t be here in the church. So I thank you in advance for your Christmas donations as we are several thousand dollars behind our collections budget due to the absence of Easter liturgies this year. Many more have signed up for online giving through WeShare (again available on our website) which helps a great deal as well. I pray you will receive much for giving much.

It took us about 5 hours to make 650 cheese raviolis and an uncountable number of homemade noodles for chicken soup. We had a couple of extra helpers this year (who of course took an oath of secrecy for the recipe) and that probably saved me from being seen bent over as I celebrate Christmas Masses today. I hope to enjoy the fruits of this labor today. I will probably have to increase my intermittent fasting hours well into the new year but I’m OK with having a gut more like Santa’s for the remainder of this holiday.

Fr. James Schmitz

ADOPT A CHILD THANK YOU

Thank you for your truly overwhelming generosity this year on behalf of the Adopt a Child for Christmas program. We distributed about 300 gifts to children of our own St. Vincent DePaul Outreach families, Zelig's Home (formerly Maggie's Place), Malachi Center and Catholic Charities sponsored refugee families. In addition, gift cards totaling $1920 were donated to St. Aloysius School families as requested in lieu of gifts and to needy families in our school, parish and at Malachi Center. A very generous parishioner donated 210 treat bags to all the children at St. Aloysius School.

Contributions totaled $3525 plus $600 in matching funds that will be donated by the First Catholic Slovak Ladies Association. This is an astounding total! It exceeds last year's collection by $1400. We are deeply grateful to all.

These contributions will be shared with our St. Vincent dePaul Outreach Organization, Providence House, Zelig's Home, Womankind, St. Colman Parish, Malachi Center and the Backdoor Ministry of St. Malachi Parish.

So many individuals generously contributed gifts, money or volunteered their time to sort gifts and help deliver. A sincere THANK YOU to all who helped to continue our tradition of helping others. We truly appreciate your generosity especially during this pandemic year when the need is so great.

Thank you to the First Catholic Slovak Ladies Association for the $600 in matching funds they so generously donate each year.

God blessings to you through the new year. Stay safe!

Sincerely, Jeanne Sabol and Judi Westerburg
