MEMORIES

In the days when the nuns filled most of the teaching positions at the school, the priests were invited to come to the school to distribute the report cards. At the time, Fr. Lux was pastor and there were two associates so you didn't know which priest you would get. When the priest entered the room, everyone sat in complete silence. When the priest called your name to come forward to get your report card, you felt as though you were being called to take your place before the firing squad. You held your breath as the priest looked at your report card. If it was a good report card, the priest might tell you that you get a piece of pie for your hard work. Before one set of report cards came out, one of the nuns asked the parents of her students to bake pies. When the priest got done distributing the report cards and dispensing the imaginary pieces of pie, the tables were turned as he was presented with several pies to take back to the rectory.

DID YOU KNOW?

Ordinations are normally held at the Cathedral. In a rare instance, St. Leo's hosted an ordination.

—John Sabol

Take a look!

On February 4 1973, one of the major events that marked the 25th anniversary of St. Leo the Great Parish was the ordination of 17 seminarians as deacons. This was the Bulletin announcement regarding that event.

WE ARE INDEED HONORED to have the Sacred Order of the Diaconate conferred on 17 young men, who will be ordained priests in May, here at St. Leo this afternoon at a special Ordination Mass at 3 P.M. It is an honor to have the Bishop bless our parish with this rare ceremony.

And this was the announcement the next week, February 11, 1973.

"OUR SINCERE APPRECIATION." is expressed to all by the 17 young men who were ordained last Sunday in our church of St. Leo. As the Bishop said in thanks to all the parish, "I am certain God's special blessings will come to you through this ordination." We thank all who responded to the call for baked goods who gave their time as hostesses/hosts, who worked and cleaned to make it a milestone in our parish. Our pity to those who did not participate in any way.

READINGS FOR THE WEEK

FIRST READING: SIRACH 15:15-20

The book of Sirach was written by a wise teacher who lived 200 years before Christ. Sirach ran a school for young people in Jerusalem. In today's passage, he urges his students to make the right choices in life.

SECOND READING: 1 CORINTHIANS 2:6-10

Paul continues to address the Corinthian community who criticized him because, according to Greek standards, he lacked wisdom. To the Greeks, wisdom meant a certain pattern of logical reasoning that followed fixed forms. In this reading, Paul speaks of wisdom that is far greater than this.

SUNDAY Sir 15:15-20/Ps 119:1-2, 4-5, 17-18, 33-34 (1b)/1 Cor 2:6-10/Mt 5:17-37 or 5:20-22a, 27-28, 33-34a, 37

MONDAY Gn 4:1-15, 25/Ps 50:1 and 8, 16bc-17, 20-21/Mk 8:11-13

TUESDAY Gn 6:5-8; 7:1-5, 10/Ps 29:1a and 2, 3ac-4, 3b and 9c-10/Mk 8:14-21

WEDNESDAY Gn 8:6-13, 20-22/Ps 116:12-13, 14-15, 18-19/Mk 8:22-26

THURSDAY Gn 9:1-13/Ps 102:16-18, 19-21, 29 and 22-23/Mk 8:27-

FRIDAY Gn 11:1-9/Ps 33:10-11, 12-13, 14-15/Mk 8:34—9:1

SATURDAY Heb 11:1-7/Ps 145: 2-3, 4-5, 10-11/Mk 9:2-13

ENCOURAGING A DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

It's often said that the Catholic Church lays heavy rules on her members, rules that can almost seem impossible. Mass every Sunday? No lying ever? Sexual purity all the time? I recently said to some non-Catholic friends that more than fifty adults were baptized at my parish at the Easter Vigil. One responded spontaneously with shock, "Why would anyone do that?" In other words, why would someone willingly place themselves in a system with such demanding and rigorous rules?

Of course, no one in the history of religions is more demanding and rigorous than Jesus himself. In the Sermon on the Mount, he says you have to be holier than pharisees or you're out. He says if you call someone a fool, you go to fiery Gehenna. He says you can't even look at a woman with lust or you're guilty of adultery (which was punishable by death). To top it all off, he says you can't even get divorced and re-married. Doesn't he know these are basically impossible demands? What world is he living in?

The new one, actually. He is the new world. Jesus' words aren't meant to condemn. They are meant to signal something new, a restored humanity. Jesus doesn't just give external laws; he gives us his Holy Spirit to internalize the law through love. He wants to fill us with his love. That's what the Church exists to do. Love demands extraordinary things. The "demands" of the Church only make sense because she is filled with Jesus' love. That wildly demanding love is why we are Catholic. — Father John Muir

SEEING GOD IN OUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Don't Live a Lie
By: Tracy Earl Welliver

One day, my son was explaining to his mother that he felt she had lied to him. It was nothing very important, but he wanted to take this opportunity to share how important telling the truth is to him. He explained that he simply tells it like it is in all aspects of his life. But an hour later, we caught him in a lie! Again, it was not about a matter of life and death, but it was a lie. When confronted with his own previous words on how important telling the truth was to him, he just smiled.

Yes, the guilty often have no words of defense. Jesus said it best in Matthew 5: "Let your 'yes' mean 'yes' and your 'no' mean 'no.'" He was warning his disciples about false oaths and then instructing them on the fullness of the Hebrew laws. We may try to do what we say and say what we mean, but it can be all too easy to fall short. We call ourselves disciples yet provide evidence to the contrary by our actions (or lack of them). Even if we feel that we have lied to no one, we may have lied to ourselves. We portray ourselves as generous, thankful, and loving people, yet fail to answer God's call in a situation because we perceive the cost to be too great.

Jesus did not simply mean for his message to be about two words. He also meant that when you say you are a disciple, make sure you are a disciple as well.

PRACTICING CATHOLIC

Feelings and Shiny Things
By: Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

A friend of mine has a tradition on the first birthday of her children. Three items — a coin, a shot glass, and a rosary — are placed in front of the one-year-old, and whatever object he grasps supposedly bears insight into his future. A coin promises wealth, the rosary indicates holiness, and the shot glass...well, I'm sure you can guess.

Of course, the kid just grabs whatever looks coolest. They're not really choosing money or God or a party. Their choice is ruled by impulse.

These days, "I'm not feeling it," is a genuine excuse to avoid something. "I feel that," we say to indicate agreement. "I feel like..." is an acceptable way to offer our opinion. Feelings carry a lot of weight.

Before Christ, there was only the law, and the law dealt primarily with actions. Do this. Do not do this. All well and good. But with the fulfillment of the law, Christ wants us to look inwardly. He wants us to consider the influence of our feelings on our actions, and to understand how our chosen actions can, in turn, inspire certain feelings.

I'm a millennial, so, depending on your age, you may think that I feel either too much or too little. One thing I have learned, though, is that when I give my feelings free rein, my instincts immediately turn into actions. I become the toddler grasping at shiny objects with no thought for what they represent. Anger becomes unkindness. Jealousy becomes cruelty. Fear becomes selfishness.

Free will, I have come to understand, means freedom from the tyranny of feelings. If a feeling is strong enough, it can build a prison.

"If your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away."

— Matthew 5:30

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners,

It seems that this column is always lagging behind as things change so quickly. Since I wrote last weekend's column, I had the funeral service for Mildred and the funeral Mass for my dad, as he passed away on the day of his wife's funeral, as I shared with you at Mass last weekend. Mildred's family decided to have the funeral now even though her one daughter (she has two) was not able to be here for it as she lives in California & due to medical issues, cannot fly. But she was able to be with us in spirit as she watched the service via FaceTime.

I want to thank all of you who offered me "assurances of faith" as we say at the end of our funeral Mass, and to all who were present at the funeral Mass for Dad. My siblings, nieces & nephews and I are all deeply grateful for your prayers & support during this time. I believe my dad would have been proud of us and I know that we are so proud and grateful to have had such wonderful parents. How important family is for both our personal growth as well as for the good of society. As Pope St. John Paul II said, "As the family goes, so goes the nation and so goes the whole world in which we live." Such words reveal their truth today. May Dad and Mom & Mildred all rest in God's perfect peace (until we get there!).

I'm glad that some were able to join us for the funeral Mass virtually through our live-streaming technology. So I want to let you know that if the funeral Mass of a loved one takes place here at St. Leo's, we are happy to have it live-streamed for the sake of those unable to be physically present for it. In fact, you are able to view any past live-streamed Mass or event for up to a year after it has been broadcast live (that is how long the company keeps the video available on their server). To view any past broadcast, just click the "Watch on Demand Video" link on the homepage of our parish website (leothegreat.org). Then just click in the search box and look up the name of the broadcast (such as the name of your deceased loved one in the case of a funeral Mass). We are also able to offer you the ability to have a copy of the video itself in MP4 format, which you can store & view on your phone, tablet or computer. However we need to provide the link for you to that from our rectory office so just reach out to me or to the Office Manager & I will be happy to help with that.

Today (if you're reading this on Sunday) is Super Bowl Sunday. I have to confess that I'm not a fan of watching these games anymore but I do participate in eating the food that generally accompanies such festivities so I ordered some subs that the Boy Scouts were providing for this occasion. Remember to pick them up in the school cafeteria between 9am and 1pm today. We were happy to have the Boy Scouts at the 11am Mass last Sunday and welcome Troop 24 to our parish! Please let us know if you have a son who would like to join this troop. I was a Cub Scout when I was younger & really enjoyed the friendships made and all that I learned. It's an admirable organization and I'm grateful to Mike Robinson & Marty Criscuolo for taking on this responsibility and for being adults that these young men can look up to.

One of my greatest joys in ministry is being able to share the truths of our Catholic faith with those who are seeking (or who actually are being sought!). Over my life, I continue to find such joy in the always-growing knowledge of God's love for me and for the world. As a Catholic Community, we seek to know Truth, Goodness & Beauty, which is God Himself. So if you yourself are not Catholic, or a fully initiated Catholic (which means you haven't yet been confirmed or received Holy Communion), and are interested in learning more, please reach out to me. I'm always anxious to share with others the joy of faith and the good news of God's love.

Fr. James Schmitz

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Saint Augustine health ministries is seeking volunteers to assist our nursing home residence to attend daily mass in our chapel. Many of our residents cherish the opportunity to spend time in prayer and fellowship, hearing, or reciting the familiar words and singing the familiar hymns. Attending mass and receiving the Eucharist have been an important part of their lives for many years, and it is comforting to continue the practice of their faith.

Volunteers are crucial to making sure that as many residents who wish to, can attend. "Holy rollers" transport residents from their rooms to the facilities chapel. Lectors, altar servers, and Eucharist Ministers assist the priest during the mass. Musicians who sing or play an instrument add so much richness to the services.

Individuals or small groups who are interested in any of these roles are welcome. We ask volunteers to commit to a couple hours weekly or monthly. We are located at 7801 Detroit Ave, in Cleveland, 44102. Masses are held Monday through Saturday at 4 PM, and Sunday at 10 AM. We especially need volunteer assistance on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. If you are interested, please contact Margaret Mullen, volunteer and community, outreach manager, at (216) 939-7601 or you can email her at Mmullen@st-aug.org.
