STATIONS OF THE CROSS

Please plan on joining us for Stations of the Cross every Friday during Lent at 7:00 pm in the Church. Fr. Jim or Deacon Pat will be leading the Stations of the Cross. Music will be included as we want more people to take advantage of this wonderful prayer opportunity. This helps us to unite our sufferings to those of Christ. Please consider experiencing this unique prayer that has such a long tradition in our church.

11:00am People of the Parish

First Reading: Genesis 15:5-12, 17-18

This passage recounts the making of a covenant between God and Abraham. Ancient Near-Eastern people often established a covenant by cutting animals in half and setting the halves opposite each other. The participants then walked in the blood flowing between the halves, thereby establishing a blood relationship. But the covenant we will hear about today involves God, who will participate in a more dramatic way.

Second Reading: Philippians 3:17-4:1

The ancient city of Philippi was located in what is today northeastern Greece. Paul's community of converts at Philippi was especially dear to him. In this section of his letter to them, Paul is upset—but not with them. He has heard that false teachers have come to the community, teaching that Jewish food laws and the rite of circumcision applied even to Christians.

Pastor's COLUMN

Dear Parishioners,

I made a slight mistake (happened once before back in 1973) when in last week's bulletin I wrote that the Memorial Mass for Rose Pelley would be on June 23rd but it will actually be on Saturday, June 25th at 10am. I'll remind you of that again when we are in the month of June.

Thanks to all who came last week to our first dine-in Fish Fry since COVID started. Many people enjoyed a delicious sit-down meal again with family, friends and fellow parishioners. I'm deeply grateful to all the parishioners who continue to volunteer at these events. We do this not so much as a fund-raiser (although it certainly is that) but mostly as an opportunity for us to build up the community of St. Leo's. We also enjoy having visitors come from all over to enjoy the food and the opportunity to see our parish. So thanks to all. I look forward each week to good food and good company.

A good suggestion was made to have those going on pilgrimage to the Holy Land in May to gather together for one of our Fish Fry's so that we can meet and get to know each other a little bit before the trip. So I'd like to suggest we do that on April 1st (and that's not an April Fools joke). Again I'll put a reminder here in the bulletin but please plan on joining us for this informal gathering.

A few years ago, the Diocese of Cleveland had an "Evening of Confessions" during Lent. On the same evening, every parish in the Diocese was open for 3 hours (5-8pm) for people to come and celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation. It was so "successful" (as in many people came to confession) that we started doing it every year. So that evening will take place this Wednesday, March 16th. Along with every other parish, our church will be open from 5pm until 8pm (please use the doors closest to the chapel area of the church by using the rectory office parking lot) and I will be available for confessions during this time. We are trying to get another priest to help, but that is quite a challenge since most full-time priests will already be hearing confessions in their own parish. We will have materials available to help you make an "examination of conscience" and you will be invited to wait your turn in the chapel area. We are especially hoping that this invitation will be accepted by those who may have been away from the Sacrament for a long time, even several years. Those are the people we rejoice in the most for as Jesus said, "There is greater joy in heaven over one repentant sinner than over 99 righteous people who have no need to repent." I have posted a YouTube video about the Sacrament on our website (leothegreat.org) which is creatively done by a young Franciscan priest named Father Casey Cole, who is known for several other YouTube videos which help people better understand the Catholic Faith. I hope you will find it both entertaining but also helpful in getting a priest's perspective on the meaning (and practice) of this wonderful sacramental encounter with the mercy of God. I will be hearing many confessions during Lent at other parishes and Catholic high schools such as Padua and St. Ignatius, and at the Damascus Catholic Mission Camp near Columbus. Pray that we priests, sinners in need of repentance and confessions ourselves, may be worthy ministers of God's forgiveness and reconciliation to others. A reminder too that confessions are heard every Saturday from 3-3:30pm and on Sunday mornings from 10-10:30am.

Please pray for our catechumen (non-baptized person) and candidates (baptized but preparing for the other sacraments of initiation) who are preparing to enter the Catholic Church at our Easter Vigil. May they receive God's many blessings during this sacred time.

Fr. James Schmitz

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

March 13, 2022-2nd Sunday of Lent

There is so much wisdom in the first commandment. The daily demands of life, current political ideologies and dynamics, social expectations, corporate philosophies, and even technology can easily become lesser gods. We can find ourselves beholden to and held captive by these secular constructs and systems. Even for those who profess a faith in the one true God, these lesser, attractive but false gods are a temptation. Being overly preoccupied and even obsessed with the state of our present lives, we lose sight of our real destiny and purpose.

Jesus showed his disciples a glimpse of this destiny when he was transfigured before their eyes. In fact, Peter was so caught up in the brilliance, awe, and sacredness of these fleeting moments that he wanted to extend them as long as possible. Wonderful things happen when we leave our illusions and discover something that is true. This is why creating some sacred space in our lives for reflection, prayer, renewal, refreshment, centering ourselves, and disconnecting from the noise is so important. It shows us how false and shallow our lives can be and what is really of importance. Do you create some kind of sacred space in your life? Lent is a perfect time to do so.

St. Irenaeus, one of the early fathers and martyrs of the Catholic Church, said that, "he who was the Son of God became the Son of Man that man ... might become the son of God." We mistakenly believe that life is all about us. It's not. Ours is a journey of transformation in which we become more and more one with the mind of Christ and Christ himself. St. Augustine saw this same transformation occurring when the Eucharist is received. In receiving the Eucharist, we become what we eat, the Body of Christ. Honestly acknowledging false gods that we cling to can open the door for God to show us the wholeness and holiness to which we are called. Take time to discover the sacred. When we do, we will want to stay there for a while. Then, when we return to our personal affairs, we will see more clearly.

MARCH 13, 2022— SECOND SUNDAY IN LENT

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS
The Resurrection and Spiritual Hangriness

I want to talk about being hangry. I'll give you a quick description of hangriness, though I warn you, it doesn't come from the Oxford English Dictionary. Hangriness is when you're so hungry you get angry. You turn into a real piece of work. You can't get anything done and you're probably not a joy to be around, at least until you grab a snack. Everybody gets this way sometimes.

We can be this way in our souls, too. It's so easy to get distracted by the hungers of this world: greed, pride, anxiety. We can become ruled by the needs of our bodies and the desires of our mind and, in doing so, neglect the needs and the desires of our souls.

Everyday stewardship calls us to a constant reflection on the truth that we are not made for this world, as Christ clearly shows us in his Transfiguration. He reveals himself in his heavenly glory, just before he is going to be deprived of all earthly needs and wants — even his very life. He shows us that this is what we were meant for. This is what we are striving for.

Lent exists to remind us that we are not made for this world. When you become spiritually hangry — or as Scripture more eloquently puts it this week, when your mind is “occupied with earthly things” — turn your thoughts to the Transfiguration. I promise you, it's even better than grabbing an energy bar.

St. Patrick | March 17

Whether you know him as the man who brought Christianity to Ireland or simply as a reason you eat corned beef and cabbage in March, St. Patrick (415 – 493) is a well-known saint around the world.

St. Patrick was born in Britain of a Romanized family. At the age of 16, he was kidnapped by Irish raiders from the villa of his father, a deacon and local official, and brought into slavery in Ireland. He spent six long years there as a herdsman, during which he turned to his faith for strength. He later escaped back to Britain on a ship, where he was eventually reunited with his family.

His years of captivity changed him and brought out a zeal for God and a yearning to spread the message of Jesus Christ. Despite the constant danger of martyrdom, he continued to travel throughout Ireland where he baptized and confirmed in the name of Christ.
