INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Today's celebration of the Most Holy Trinity shows us how awesome and huge God really is! He is not a judgmental and aloof king reigning in heaven but a loving and compassionate God who is intimately involved with his children and all his creation. God as Father reveals the immensity of God's presence as seen in the wonder of creation: the stars and seas, the mountains and hills, and all the glory that surrounds us. Jesus reveals the compassionate and gentle face of God, a God of mercy who desires nothing more than for his children to seek and come to him. God the Holy Spirit reminds us that God is the very life force of our existence, without whom we would have no breath and the universe would have no life.

PLEASE REMEMBER... Sarah Geier, Edward P. Gorczyca, Betty Jayne Glover, Bob McLaughlin, Stella Sugalski, Donna Mlady, Cheri Minch, Theresa Pauloski, Annamae Sironen, Ann Szpansky, Larry Kuznik, Jo Hoffman, Anna Mendoza, John Risko, Glenn "Joe" Hess, Diane Soler, Muffie Bone, Theresa Truxall, Gary LaBuda, Jeanette Klaehn, Ruth Frohlich, Stanley Kosiba, Ron Vokac, Charles Hakain, Walter Milewski, Doug Burcham, Elizabeth Woisnet & Lisa Rivera.

First Reading: Exodus 34:4-6, 8-9

When Moses saw the Israelite people worshipping the golden calf, he angrily threw down and broke the tablets containing the commandments. Later, God instructed him to cut two new tablets. Today's passage begins at that point, and offsets the mistaken notion that the Old Testament always presents a stern and angry God.

Second Reading: 2Corinthians 13:11-13

This passage is the ending of Paul's second letter to the Corinthians. The Church chose this passage for Trinity Sunday because the final sentence mentions all three persons of the Trinity. That sentence is also used as one of the greeting at the beginning of Mass.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners,

I had a funeral service this past Monday for James Deering. Please say a prayer for him as well as for his mother and sister who mourn his passing.

There are many other people who are ill & who are in need of our prayers too: Stan, Betty, Daniel, Judy, Donna, Pamela, & Jerry, to name just a few I have anointed lately. These are the people who carry the cross of illness and who need the healing & strength that is given by the Lord. We also remember their caregivers and loved ones who continue to inspire me by their selfless dedication to the well-being of our ill brothers & sisters.

Hopefully you noticed how good our grounds are looking when you drove in to the parking lot today. Our maintenance crew has done an excellent job so early into the summer by planting flowers and spreading mulch. 160 yards of mulch was very generously donated to us again by the Rosby family, parishioners of St. Leo's. They have donated mulch to us for several years and we are very grateful to them! Even our signs (which need to be replaced & updated sometime in the future) were re-painted. The grass is kept cut, flowers are watered daily & bushes and trees are trimmed. Many thanks to our maintenance department for the great work they do and the many projects they will be working on this summer, both inside and out.

Some people have asked for the name of the book I mentioned last week when speaking of how Divine Providence intervenes on our behalf at times when we think that such strange events are mere coincidence. The book is called "The American Miracle: Divine Providence in the Rise of the Republic" by Michael Medved. It's available on Amazon (this is not a paid endorsement from either the author or from Amazon...though if either of them wanted to send me a little something, I wouldn't object).

A well-known company by the name of Collette provides many tours for groups and is used by several priests in our Diocese. I would like to be part of a tour that would travel to Italy in the fall of 2018. There are three different itineraries which include places like Rome, Venice, the Amalfi Coast, Florence, etc. Next Wednesday (June 14th) at 7pm in the rectory, I'll be having a meeting with anyone who may be interested in joining me. It's just an informational meeting so feel free to attend if you'd like to talk about the possibility of an 8-10 day tour. Whether you join me or not, here's a travel tip: when preparing to travel, lay out all your clothes and all your money. Then take half the clothes and twice the money. Trust my experience on this.

THANK YOU!

Thank you for joining us for our special Memorial Day Mass. Special thanks to the Cub Scouts who took time from their holiday to attend Mass AND lead a flag-raising ceremony in front of the school. It was a fitting tribute for those who served our country and made the ultimate sacrifice.

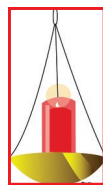

JUNE ROSARY

Please join us as we pray the rosary on Monday, June 19th, at 7:00 p.m. by the Marian shrine. (In the event of inclement weather, the rosary will be said in the church.) Please bring a lawn chair.

If you do not have a rosary, we will provide one. If you do not know how to pray the rosary, we will provide you with information as well. The Blessed Virgin Mary asked us to pray the rosary. We hope you will join us in honoring her request.

SANCTUARY CANDLE INTENTIONS

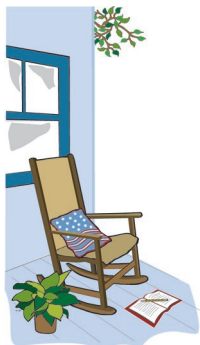

The Sanctuary Candle is the candle next to the Tabernacle, which signifies the real presence of Christ within it. You can dedicate this Sanctuary Candle in memory of a loved one or for a special intention for two weeks; the name will be published in the bulletin so that your intention can be prayed for by everyone during that time. The donation for the candle is $10.00.

Please stop by the Rectory Office or the Information Desk in the vestibule of the church to request a Sanctuary Candle Intention.

PARISH GUIDE BOOK & DIRECTORY—ADVERTISING OPPORTUNITY

We are in the process of updating our annual Guide Book & Directory for the church. This book will contain everything pertinent to our church: the various ministries, organizations, committees, activities, functions and events plus a complete directory of all members. This book is being provided and mailed directly to each family at no cost to our church, and it is again being subsidized by local businesses. If you own or manage a business and would like to find out about advertising in our book, please call the Rectory Office (216-661-1006).

DID YOU KNOW?

You may be able to double the money you already donate to St. Leo if you work for a company that provides a Matching Gift Program?

Several local and national companies offer a Matching Gift Program, also known as a Matching Fund or Matching Donation. It is a charitable gift made to a non-profit organization on the request of the employee. If your company offers this program, they (your employer) will match your donation. This means that all the charitable donations you already make so generously to us, will be doubled by your employer. For instance, if you donated $1000 to St. Leo last year, your employer will donate, or match, the same. Your donation of $1000 just became $2000.

We are very grateful for the generous check we just received from these matching gifts. Please call or email Brenda at the Rectory Office or bbasalla@leothegreat.org for more information. As always, thank you for your continued support of our Parish Community.
