THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed
for many." - Mk 14:24

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

As we gather today to reaffirm our faith in the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist, we are reminded that we are also the Body of Christ. The mission of the Gospel calls us to be Christ for others. There is so much brokenness and pain in our world. Many people are lost and feeling lonely, marginalized and oppressed, victimized and abused. Every time we receive the Body (and Blood) of Christ, we are asked to become what we eat. Are we willing to step aside from our preoccupations and concerns so that we can be Christ for others?

Every week we pray for those discerning a vocation in religious life.

Chad Johnson
Diocese of Youngstown
II Theology, St. Mary

Pray that he may continue to persevere and that others may respond to God's call.

First Reading: Exodus 24:3-8

Today's passage from the book of Exodus describes the covenant between God and the Israelite people. A covenant is a solemn agreement made between two parties and was usually sealed in blood. In ancient times, blood was considered the source of life. To sprinkle two people with the same blood bonded them as close as if they were blood relatives.

Second Reading: Hebrews 9:11-15

On Yom Kippur, the high priest sacrificed a goat on the altar in the temple. Then he took some of the blood into the holiest place in the temple sanctuary where only he was allowed to go. There, he sprinkled that blood as a renewal of the covenant made at Mount Sinai, and prayed that God would forgive the sins they had committed during the previous year. This ritual is the backdrop from today's reading from the letter to the Hebrews.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR CONTINUED SUPPORT!

FROM THE
PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners,

I will not be with you this weekend. Our family has this tradition of going to Vegas when a niece or nephew turns 21 and so there was a trip planned for this past week. My sister in Florida asked me if I wanted to go to Vegas with them or to dog sit for her in Florida. I've been to Vegas enough times to know the odds...that you'll come back with less money than you brought there, so I chose dog sitting. It's a sacrifice I'm willing to make so that my family can enjoy their trip out west. I'll put up with the heat, the loneliness of being in the pool by myself, and the boring days of doing nothing but eating and reading a good book.

We are extremely grateful for a very generous donation given to us by a parishioner named Georgianne Mroczka. Sadly Georgianne passed away back in November and her funeral Mass was celebrated here at St. Leo's. Georgianne's generous donation has enabled us to welcome three new people to our staff, (Deacon Pat & Joan Berigan and Nathan Noga) and they will have a direct impact on the lives of the parishioners through their ministry here. I think Georgianne would be happy about that. Here are just some of the words that her sister Christine Woodland used to describe her: "The most important part of her life would be to spend time with family and friends. She would drive great distances alone to be with family for special occasions or just to be there for you. She went to great lengths to keep a very detailed family history that she updated and shared on a regular basis. She was the organizer of monthly luncheons with the people that she had worked with in the past. She always had a positive attitude and was very generous. She would listen wholeheartedly to her family and friends and would be there to support them in any way she could. She was never judgmental. She looked for the best in people and would take their problems and stories to heart. She would write notes and letters to nieces and nephews to encourage them in their goals and take the time to listen and encourage them to go on. She was quick to remind you of your good qualities and character. She was always interested in whatever you were doing. She would keep you up to the wee hours of the morning just talking. There were so many times when talking and remembering old times would have you laugh so hard you would have happy tears running down your face. And that was probably one of my best memories of her..... laugh until you cry those happy tears." May God reward her for her generosity to us and for her great love of others.

Our sympathies to Tom Richlovsky on the death of his father, Simon, who was 97 years old, and was buried in his parish of St. Charles in Parma. God's peace be with him

Fr. Jim Schmitz

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL REACH OUT AND HELP A NEEDY FAMILY...Not

every parishioner can be in the right place at the right time to help a needy family as Jesus asks. Your St. Vincent DePaul Outreach Organization has been set up to do just that. Your help through the poor boxes assists your SVDP parish group in providing food and helping with other expenses to those in need. When you pass by the poor boxes help members reach out and help a needy family.

SOCK AND UNDERWEAR DRIVE...You can place

your socks and underwear items in front of the St. Vincent de Paul statue this weekend Cash donations would also be welcomed and we will do the shopping for you. Your envelope can be dropped in the collection basket or taken to the Rectory. Be sure to mark the envelope "SVDP Sock and Underwear Drive". Thank you!

SUMMER PLANS... Make Sure to Attend The FEST

As your calendar quickly fills up, make sure to circle Sunday, August 5th for The FEST. You're not going to want to miss this amazing FREE Catholic Family Day beginning at 12 noon and ending with Mass at 8 pm. with Bishop Perez For details or for more information go to www.TheFEST.us.
