First Reading: Genesis 18:20-32

Today's passage from Genesis is another episode from the life of Abraham, our father in faith. He lived near Sodom, a city notorious for its wickedness. In this passage, Abraham employs the Middle-Eastern technique of bartering to negotiate with God over the future of that city.

Second Reading: Colossians 2:12-14

Today we continue our series of four readings from the letter to the Colossians. We have seen how this letter emphasizes Christ as the sole mediator between God and all creation. Today's passage speaks of how we become one with Christ.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

July 24, 2022 | 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Meister Eckhart asks, "Who is the man whose prayers God always hears?" He answers, "God hears the man who appeals to God as God. When, however, man appeals to God, hoping for some worldly good, he is not appealing to God at all, but to what he is asking of God. He is trying to make God his servant. On this point, St. Augustine says: 'You pray to what you love, for true whole prayer is nothing but love!' Thus, we pray to what we love, and no one rightly prays to God but he who prays for God and has nothing on his mind but God." We struggle with what we want God to do and how we want our prayer validated. Meister Eckhart is correct. We often want God to be our servant. We further struggle with trusting that God knows what we need and that His will is best.

God's will is not some predetermined outcome of events that we must simply suggest. "Thy will be done" is not an invocation beckoning us to accept a particular state of affairs passively. Rather, it is the humble and confident placement of ourselves in the presence of the God we seek, whom we call "Father." We must remember that God is the God of life and light. It is from nothing that God brings something and from the darkness that God brings life. Prayer allows us to seek the One we love with the assurance that all will be well regardless of what course the events of our lives take. God is not about passive submission but the humble trust of love.

That's what makes the Lord's Prayer the perfect prayer. It provides us with proper disposition and focus, putting in line all of the essential relationships of our lives. It celebrates and fosters the ever-deepening relationship of trust we have with our Creator. It also calls us to keep open the doors of love between our brothers and sisters with the power that comes with forgiveness. If in one's darkest hour they can find the resolve to fervently pray this perfect prayer of Jesus' conviction, then there is no doubt that God will hear their plea, reach out in love, and bring them ever closer to His heart. What more does one need to weather the storms of life besides faith, hope, and love? These are God's most perfect gifts and all we really need.

Pastor's COLUMN

Dear Parishioners,

Last Saturday, July 16th, we celebrated the life of Nenita Wilde, the sister of parishioner Cora DeJelo, so we extend our sympathies to Cora who has been very active in our parish over the years and who presently serves as the 11:00am Sunday Mass Coordinator and as a Eucharistic Minister. Her sister Nenita or "Nette" was also very active in her faith but also balanced her life of service with prayer. Nette was also a Eucharistic Minister, volunteered at Holy Family Hospice, and also volunteered for the Philippino-American Community. She attended daily Mass and prayed the rosary each day as well. We extend our sympathy to her two sons and trust that she will now receive her reward for a life of prayer and service.

We offer our congratulations to Ron and Jan Regal who are celebrating 25 years of marriage at the 11am Mass this weekend. They were married here at St. Leo's by Father John Oselca and they are active parishioners and faithful participants at Sunday Mass. We are happy to ask God's blessing on them as they continue to remind us, as St. Paul says, of the faithful love that Christ has for his bride, the Church. May they enjoy many more happy years together.

An elderly parishioner (she recently celebrated her 95th birthday!) is seeking someone who can live with her at her ranch home and tend to her daily needs. We frequently have people ask if such caregivers are available in the parish so I thought it might be helpful to put the word out there in case such a person may be looking for free room & board in exchange for taking care of an elderly person who needs someone to keep an eye on them. We can put you in touch with this parishioner if you would like more information so call the rectory office if interested.

I heard that Father Vesely was experiencing some changes in his health so I went to visit him at Mount Alverna, along with Deacon Pat & Joan Berigan. It was great to see that he is as mentally alert as ever but sad to see that his health has declined to the point where he can no longer walk at all, and even needs assistance getting in & out of bed. They have moved him from his assisted living apartment to the skilled nursing section. Father continues to serve the residents there despite his physical limitations, especially by listening to those who experience the effects of illness and aging as he has. We will keep his address in the bulletin so that you can send him a card as I'm sure he would be encouraged to know you are thinking of him and keeping him in your prayers. I'm aware that some parishioners also stop by to see him from time and time and I know how much he appreciates those visits as it can get lonely especially for a priest who is used to being in regular contact with people. We will continue to keep him in our prayers at both weekend & weekday Mass and I want you to know how much priests appreciate your prayers for us on a regular basis. Father Vesely also let us know that he is now the oldest living priest in the Diocese of Cleveland! When I was first ordained, I was the youngest priest in the Diocese as I was the youngest in my ordination class. Now I just continue to age along with the rest of the priests who have been at this work for a long time. But I am grateful for my health and conscious that any one of us can be hit with health problems without warning so please keep Father Vesely in mind when you pray for priests. We continue to have his name on the front of our parish bulletin even though he has not lived here for several years since we continue to consider him a member of our parish community. He served the people of St. Leo's for many years by celebrating Mass & hearing confessions. May the Lord now give him the strength he needs to continue serving the residents of Mount Alverna, especially through his priestly presence there.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENT

When I Called, You Answered

Some of us have that friend about whom we are constantly discovering new things. Maybe we've known this person for ten or even twenty years, and one day at lunch we'll find out they're a direct descendant of a dead president or they once met a major celebrity.

"You never asked," they'll say with a shrug.

As annoying as this can be, it makes perfect sense, doesn't it? We never asked. There is something strangely sacred about the act of asking for something. It requires humility. It requires grace. It requires us to be awake, to be aware, to be vulnerable.

Too often we fall into a pattern of entitlement, even when it comes to information. We go through life thinking that a great cosmic conveyor belt of what we want is going to roll on past us, and we'll barely even have to extend our arms. We read our Bible and we hear all these amazing promises from the Father who loves us, and we get sort of complacent. He's got this, we think, and we shut our eyes to take a snooze on the road trip of life, confident that someone else is going to look out for stop signs and wrong turns.

It's true: God's got this. He is going to take care of us. But He wants us to be in relationship with Him. He wants us to be an active, receptive participant in our own salvation. See his patience with Abraham's entreaties on behalf of the righteous of Sodom: He wants to answer, not simply to tell.

He wants us to stay awake for the drive.

St. James the Apostle | July 25

Saint James the Apostle is also called James, son of Zebedee, or James the Greater to distinguish him from the other James in Jesus' group of twelve. Most of what we know about Saint James is recorded in the New Testament. He and his brother John were collected by Jesus along the sea of Galilee. Matthew 4:18-22 tells the story of Jesus calling first Simon Peter and his brother Andrew and then the sons of Zebedee. In Mark 3:17 the brothers receive a nickname from Jesus who calls them "sons of thunder" because of their many extreme reactions, like that in Luke 9:54 when they offer to call down fire on a Samaritan village.

Saint James was part of Jesus' intimate circle, a witness to the Transfiguration, the resurrection of Jarius' daughter, and the agony in the garden of Gethsemane. In A.D. 44 Herod Agrippa had "James, the brother of John, killed by the sword." (Acts 12:2) He is the only apostle whose martyrdom is written of in the New Testament.

According to Spanish tradition, his body was taken to Santiago de Compostela, Spain where his relics were rediscovered in 9th century. This tradition has sometimes been attributed to a passage in the Song of Roland which tells of St. James appearing to Charlemagne in a dream, prophesying that Charlemagne would conquer the Moors in Spain. This was followed by a vision of stars which if followed would lead to the saint's lost tomb. In the Middle Ages Compostela was a hugely popular pilgrimage site. The saint's relics continue to rest in the cathedral there and one can still undertake the pilgrimage.
