PACK 'N' PLAYS

A local church was recently gifted a very large order of 70 or so child Pack'n'Plays (playpens) that accommodate ages 1 and under. If you or someone you know is in need of one for your/their own family, please email your interest, request or questions to pastoromarmedina@gmail.com and mention that you became aware of this generous offer through St. Leo's. We thank Pastor Omar for thinking of our Parish and for sharing these gifts with those in need as growing and accommodating a family these days , like most things, is costly.

WEDDING BANNS

III. Elizabeth DeCaro & Vincent Rongone

ROSARY & MAY CROWNING

Join us in honoring Mary on:

Thursday, May 2nd, at 7:00 p.m.

as we pray the rosary and have a May Crowning by the Marian shrine. Please feel free to bring chairs as there is limited seating. In the event of inclement weather, the rosary and May crowning will take place in the church (enter through the doors closest to the rectory).

THE NEOCATECHUMENAL WAY

In the Easter season we celebrate the fact that Christ has conquered sin and death! To bring this fact closer to home, there will be a series of catechesis or talks in the parish that are aimed to cultivate adult faith in those seeking answers to the serious questions and issues of life. These talks will be from 7pm (until about 8pm) and will continue every Tuesday and Friday at the same time in the Parish Center. These catechesis are brought to the parish by the missionary team of the Neocatechumenal Way, a new experience in the life of the Church, which our late Pope Saint John Paul II called, "an itinerary of Catholic faith formation valid for our society and our times." This will be a marvelous opportunity to rediscover the fruits that your baptism holds for this life, and also to invite those you know who have strayed from the Church to hear the Good News.

LIVING IN FAITH TOGETHER

Ladies, all ages, no matter where you are in your faith journey, please, join us on:

Wednesday, May 15th, 2024 at 6:30p.m.

READINGS FOR THE WEEK OF APRIL 28, 2024

Sunday: Acts 9:26-31/Ps 22:26-27, 28, 30, 31-32 (26a)/1 Jn 3:18-24/
Jn 15:1-8

Monday: Acts 14:5-18/Ps 115:1-2, 3-4, 15-16/Jn 14:21-26

Tuesday: Acts 14:19-28/Ps 145:10-11, 12-13ab, 21/Jn 14:27-31a

Wednesday: Acts 15:1-6/Ps 122: 1-2, 3-4ab, 4cd-5/Jn 15:1-8

Thursday: Acts 15:7-21/Ps 96:1-2a, 2b-3, 10/Jn 15:9-11

Friday: 1 Cor 15:1-8/Ps 19:2-3, 4-5/Jn 14:6-14

Saturday: Acts 16:1-10/Ps 100:1b-2, 3, 5/Jn 15:18-21

Next Sunday: Acts 10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48/Ps 98:1, 2-3, 3-4 (see 2b)/1 Jn 4:7-10/Jn 15:9-17

First Reading: Acts 9:26-31

Earlier in the book of Acts, we hear of Saul (later known as Paul) persecuting Christians in Jerusalem. When he went to Damascus to do more of the same, he experienced a dramatic conversion. It was several years before he returned to Jerusalem, the site of his earlier persecutions. His first visit to Jerusalem as a Christian is described in today’s reading.

Second Reading: 1 John 3:18-24

During this Easter Season, our second Scripture reading is from the first letter of John. In today’s passage, the author is dealing with some members of the community who have deflected. They seem to have believed that, as long as you have faith in Jesus, it doesn’t matter what you do in daily life. The author directly refutes that position.

REFLECTIONS BY LUKE BROWN | SACRED HEART COUNSELING

If you have not heard of St. John Vianney or read about his life, you should consider doing so. St. John Vianney serves as a great example to those who struggle with comparison and insecurity. If you are unfamiliar with his life, he was a Catholic priest in France during the 19th century that was evaluated by the Church and his educators as being “intellectually slow and ignorant” before he was ordained. His mentor convinced the Church to ordain him on holiness alone instead of his lackluster knowledge of philosophy, theology, and Latin. He was then sent to a small parish in France where the Church thought he would do the least amount of damage since they considered him to be somewhat incompetent. There he continued his path to holiness through prayer and sacrifice. Years later, so many people were making pilgrimages to see him and go to confession with him that train tracks and a larger church needed to be built to serve everyone. He died in 1859 and was canonized in 1925. Many people desire to be smarter, prettier, or more talented, amongst other things. These can feed insecurity about who we are and our capabilities in this world and in our church. However, St. John Vianney serves as an example of the true priority- holiness and relationship with Christ. When insecurities lead to issues such as anxiety and depression, consider reflecting on the life of St. John Vianney and his example of holiness despite his imperfections and deficits. — LUKE BROWN

PRACTICING CATHOLIC

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Love in Deed

It's a Wonderful Life is one of my favorite Christmas movies. It only occurred to me recently, though, that this film, for all its yuletide aesthetic, is actually more of an Easter story.

I love this movie because it's a very Catholic film — not overtly, although we do see the main character, George Bailey, going to Mass. No, it's the themes that are Catholic, not the set dressing. It's a story about the choices we make — to love, or not to love? To sacrifice, or not to sacrifice? To put oneself first, or to put oneself last? It's a story about what the consequences of those choices look like here in the world, and what they look like in heaven.

In the film, we meet a young George Bailey who dreams of growing up to do amazing, impressive things. Over the years, he makes a choice here and he makes a choice there ... and when all is said and done, the adult George Bailey is a tired, overworked husband and father with no worldly attributes that anyone would envy.

But he's a man who has loved in deed, not just in word, and who has reaped the spiritual rewards of those choices.

The season of Easter is about rejoicing in true redemption, not in worldly triumph. The Word of God is not a bedtime story. It's a pruning shear. To hear it is to be changed, to be shaped. To live it is to lose some things, so that you might bloom in unexpected ways. To welcome the Word is to be willing to look different, to feel different.

Anyone can say, “I love you, I accept you, I want to help you.” But what does it actually look like, to love in deed and not just in word? It looks like giving something up: free time, wealth, comfort, worldly approval. It looks, to the casual observer, like pain.

To someone who has no concept of how plants grow and thrive, a gardener's pruning shears look like an executioner's sword. To someone who has no concept of how souls grow and thrive, a tomb barred by a stone looks like the end of a story, when in fact it's just the beginning.

“Children, let us love not in word or speech, but in deed and truth.” — 1 John 3:18

PRAYER OF FRUITFULNESS

*God in Heaven,
Your grace surrounds us every day as we seek to live and move and grow in You. Prune the spaces in our lives that distract us from You!
Plant Your word more deeply within us!
Amen.*

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners,

It's unusual when I am not able to complete a column for this parish bulletin, but last week I was in a mind fog brought on by a chest cold. But I'm feeling much better now so am able to communicate with you what's been happening.

I am happy to share the news that we now have a Music Minister who will be starting here next Sunday, May 5th. Her name is Angela Kovic, and she was one of our substitutes during the last 6 months. I reached out to her after many people (myself included) recognized her beautiful voice and her musical abilities on both the piano and organ. I should say that we welcome Music Ministers (plural) as I have also hired her husband Devin, to join us as well. Devin has directed a bell choir which is a hard-to-find talent but one that I am hopeful we can use here at St. Leo's. Many of you know that we have a set of handbells here and used to have a bell choir many years ago. I hate that they sit unused in our music room and so am hopeful that Devin will be able to encourage some of you to learn how to play them. No doubt it will start small but if you have an interest in learning this musical instrument (I think you can call them that), please let him know! Devin also plays the viola, an instrument that is similar to the violin but I can't say I'd be able to identify one. I'm just happy that both Angela & Devin will be able to bring some consistency to our Sunday worship. We welcome them to this parish ministry and I invite you to do so personally after Mass sometime.

In speaking with Mary Piechowski, our other Music Minister, I wanted to continue to include her within our music ministry as we continue to enjoy her musical abilities on the piano and organ and appreciate the gift of her voice as well. But Mary enjoys taking more time to spend with her daughter Lily. Since Angela would like to commit to playing at the two liturgies on Sunday morning with the intention of also working with the choir on Sundays, Mary said she would like to continue to play at some of our Saturday Masses. So she will continue to be involved in that way but we will also make use of the substitutes we have had these past few months for a couple of our Saturday Masses each month. This way we will have both consistency and variety which will enhance our music ministry. So please continue to let Mary know as well how much we appreciate her time with us here at St. Leo's. Thank you all for your patience during these last 6 months as we searched for a way to allow our liturgical music to give glory to God and to help us lift our minds and hearts to God in prayer through song.

Last weekend Eric Perusek introduced himself to you at all the Masses and I am really happy to have him as part of our Pastoral Staff as a Minister of Engagement. We had to really think hard about what title to give his work here as my intention was to have someone on staff who could help build relationships in both our parish and school communities. As I have gotten to know Eric over the last few years from our occasional conversations, I could see in him a desire for ministry in the Church which matched my desire to bridge the gaps that often exist in parishes and schools. We talked about a variety of different opportunities he could provide that would help people spend time together while also growing in their faith. Eric spoke about how his first attempt to help do that would be to give everyone a chance to watch The Chosen episodes together (starting with Season 4), which I have spoken & written about. Please let me or Eric know what other ideas you might have for coming together to learn and grow in our Catholic faith. I am excited about these additions to our parish staff. Please pray for them all!

Fr. James Schmitz

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

By: Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

“Do Others See God In You”

When I was a teenager, I had an experience that truly changed my life and helped me to give Jesus all of myself. I had been baptized Catholic and always had faith, but it took a specific event to really shake me out of the comfort of my life and set me on a path devoted to God. I didn't get knocked off a horse or find an open tomb, but for me it was powerful enough to make a huge impact.

Testimonies of how people came to live as intentional disciples have great power. Often the stories do not include singular events or people; instead they speak of a gradual unfolding of faith. It is often the culmination of several events and the work of more than one person that brings a person to the point of real decision.

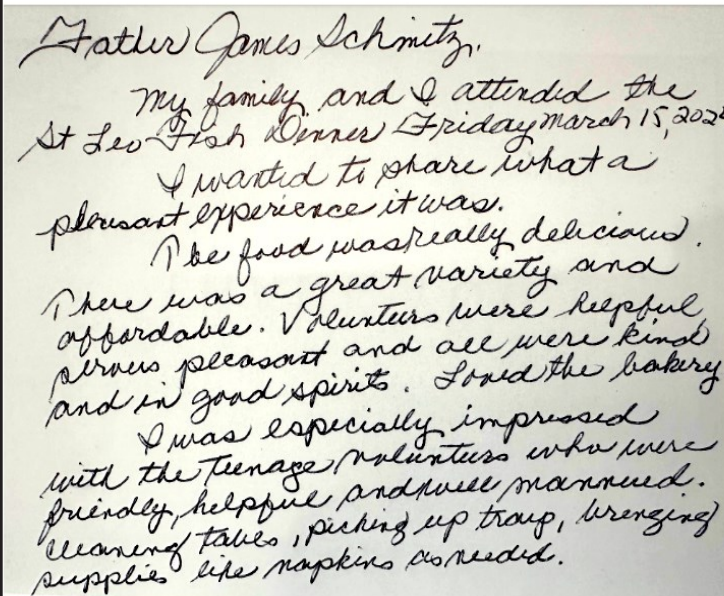

Living as good stewards, we can help move people forward in their journey with God. Giving of ourselves freely can move human hearts like few other forces. God working through us can bring others to see that simply saying that Jesus is the Savior of the world does not mean we live our lives differently. It takes more thought and reflection on our part to move past words to intentional acts with intentional results.

I don't know if all those involved in that event when I was a teenager knew what an effect their good stewardship would have on me, but I am so thankful they provided a way for God to touch me. I have spent my entire life trying to pay them back by allowing God to touch others through me.

Just what person might God touch through you today?

NEVER TOO LATE TO SHARE A NOTE OF THANKS

“Listening to Your Body While Answering the Prophetic Call”

WEBINAR: May 6, 2024 @ 7:00pm

Visit dioceseofcleveland.org/events to Register

As disciples of Christ, we have committed to God and answered His call on our lives. In our walk with the Lord, we have learned to listen to Him, however, many of us have martyred ourselves by ignoring the God-given signals and alarms of the very temple He created for us to walk in our calling. This session will take a deep dive into health and wellness regarding common health issues in our community such as inflammation, insulin resistance, heart disease, and hormone regulation, and how they correlate and impact the very call God has sent us on. This session is part of the NBCC 2024 Webinar Series.
