ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

To "live and let live" is alright in its own way...but to "Live and Help Live" is better. You can help others live by sharing your goods and your prayers through the St Vincent de Paul Outreach Organization. Share your love, your caring and living by helping the St. Vincent de Paul Outreach Organization care for those in need by putting a donation in the Poor Boxes or putting your donation in an envelope, marking it "SVDP" and placing it in the collection baskets or taking it to the Rectory Office. Your help DOES make a difference and is very much appreciated. Thank you.

Rosary & May Crowning

Thursday, May 4th, at 7:00 p.m.

MEMORIES

May Crownings were always special as a student at St. Leo's. Every classroom had a statue of Mary, and the nuns, teachers, and students would decorate the area surrounding the statue with light blue and white fabric. The students would bring in flowers from their gardens to place in vases near the statue. There was always an abundance of yellow dandelion flowers brought in as well. Each student hoped that they'd be selected to place the crown on Mary.

Do you have a favorite memory from the past 75 years? If so, please submit it to nzola@leothegreat.org.

We also welcome photos throughout the year of the people and events taking place. Do you have any photos from the Mass with the Bishop and social on October 9th? Please forward your photos to photos@leothegreat.org

DID YOU KNOW?

The Marian shrine between the church and the Parish Center was originally a grassy area. The Parish Center was the convent, and the current church was not built. Large boulders which were dug up during construction of the school, original church, and convent were placed behind the convent, and a statue of Mary was placed on top. Fr. Russ Lowe changed the area into the shrine we see today -- with poured concrete in front of the statue of Mary and plants and bushes surrounding the statue. The benches we now use were brought in by Fr. Jim Schmitz.

The Neocatechumenal Way

A series of one-hour talks will continue to take place every Tuesday and Friday at 7pm in the Parish Center. These catechesis are brought to the parish by the missionary team of the Neocatechumenal Way, a new experience in the life of the Church, which our late Pope Saint John Paul II called, "an itinerary of Catholic faith formation valid for our society and our times." Every talk is different and builds on the one meeting prior. While you don't have to attend every meeting, it is encouraged that you attend as often as you are able. Snacks and refreshments will be made available for you to enjoy. These talks are most appropriate for ages 12 & up; Childcare available.

READINGS FOR THE WEEK

FIRST READING: ACTS 2:14, 36-41

In last Sunday's reading from the Acts of the Apostles, we heard a portion of Peter's sermon at the first Pentecost. Today's passage gives the last part of that sermon, and the reaction of those who heard it.

SECOND READING: 1 PETER 2:20-25

Today's passage from the first letter to Peter was addressed to Christian slaves who were being treated harshly by their pagan masters. The author reminds them that they are members of a flock whose shepherd walked ahead of them in the face of insults and unjust treatments.

A DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

I recently rescued a dog. She's a terrier and rather adorable. And she's crazy about me. She could spend all day with me. But I'm a pastor at a parish and sometimes I leave her at the front desk of the church office. She constantly amazes me by her ability to distinguish between my voice and that of everyone else. If I say one word, even if I'm hidden around a corner, she'll sprint toward me and jump up into my arms.

This week the readings focus our attention to the voice of the risen Jesus Christ. Comparing his disciples to sheep and himself to a shepherd, he says, "They recognize his voice." He speaks to us and wants us to respond. When we hear his voice, we follow. Throughout this coming week, we will experience many interior promptings to receive God's love, and to love Him in return. That's his voice. Follow it into the safe and tender arms of Christ.

By contrast, some voices we will hear do not convey God's concern and love for us, but rather produce fear, despair, and other harmful mischief. Jesus calls these voices those of robbers. Does an idea or thought make it harder for you to love God? If so, run away. Let it go. It is most likely not the voice of the Risen Lord. Keep waiting for him to speak. You will recognize his voice. Then run to him as fast as you can. — Father John Muir

PRACTICING CATHOLIC "Cut to the Heart"

By: Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Everyone who has been married knows this feeling: you're in the midst of a disagreement with your spouse. You've really dug in your heels. You're ready to die on this hill. And you have the awful, heartbreaking realization that you are wrong. Whatever it is you're arguing about, you're wrong. You.

So where do you go from here? The only way forward is to own it. Fess up. Grab a fork and dig into that humble pie. It makes me cringe just to write about it, because it's the worst feeling.

I use the example of marriage because it's the one I'm most familiar with — my closest relationship, the one that teaches me the most about who I am and who God asks me to be. But this is a universal experience, and everyone — single or married, child or adult, lay or ordained — knows how badly it feels to realize that you're wrong. You're human. You messed up.

It is hard to recognize that the Christian life is one of ongoing repentance. It is painful to acknowledge the ways in which we are falling short, even as we strive to follow in Christ's example.

It can, in the words of today's reading, "cut to the heart."

But that feeling of despair is what propels forward motion. We have to allow ourselves to feel bad, that's the fertile ground of penitence. We are meant to have not just life, but life "more abundantly." Stasis isn't the goal. Baptism isn't the finish line. Examining our conscience is hard. It cuts to the heart. It cuts to the truth.

"Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins." — Acts 2:38

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

"Do you hear God's call?"

By: Tracy Earl Welliver

When my wireless provider introduced HD Voice, the voice I heard on my phone was unbelievably clear, and it felt at times like both the caller and I were in the same room. The best aspect of this feature is that it didn't cost the customer any additional fees, and it didn't require any changes to the phone. I could say it was free, but I suspect I was already paying for it in my monthly bill anyway. At least it felt free.

The clearer the voice calling you, the easier it is to recognize who it is on the other end of the line. In John's Gospel, Jesus speaks of the gatekeeper who opens the gate and calls for his sheep. They respond because they know his voice. Others try to lure the sheep when the gatekeeper is not there, but the sheep find their voices unclear or unfamiliar.

Jesus is our gatekeeper. But unlike receiving something for free from a wireless company, to be able to hear his voice we need to pay attention and practice listening. By developing a stewardship way of life that is mindful and prayerful, we become attuned to his voice and are able to discern when the call is from our Lord and when it is from an imposter. It is great to talk about all the things we can do and all the gifts we can share, but if we are not listening for his call to hear where our offerings are needed, we can end up like a lost sheep searching for the gatekeeper.

Question & Answer

Question:

Does it matter what leg you kneel on when genuflecting?

Answer:

Genuflection is an act of devotion that literally means "to bend the knee." For many Catholics, it's an almost automatic gesture that we perform before entering our pew or row of seats at Mass. But, like many of the symbols and gestures of our faith tradition, genuflecting can also be an invitation for deeper reflection.

The practice of "bending the knee" is an ancient way of recognizing the presence of someone greater than we are. It has been said that the practice dates back to the time of Alexander the Great, but it became a common part of etiquette in the royal courts of the Middle Ages. From throne rooms and palaces, it was a small step to genuflecting, becoming part of the devotional lives of Christians who used this secular gesture as a way of recognizing the presence of the One who is King of Kings, especially in the Eucharist. In our tradition, although many have been taught or prefer to genuflect by placing their right knee on the ground, there is no prescribed way to genuflect. This is especially important to keep in mind if physical limitations or age make certain movements difficult for us.

Today, Catholics are asked to genuflect in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament (whether in the tabernacle or exposed on the altar during eucharistic adoration). So, while it has become second nature to genuflect before entering your seat in church, we should pay attention to where the Blessed Sacrament is kept in each church or chapel we visit, and genuflect in the direction of the tabernacle where the Blessed Sacrament is kept. In churches or chapels in which the tabernacle is in a separate space, we are invited to simply bow toward the altar.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners,

As I type this column in my office, I have a space heater blowing on HI about 2 feet from me (and from my feet). And I'm betting that you wish you had a space heater that close to you if you are reading this in our church. I must apologize for forgetting from one year to the next that it can (and does) still get very cold during the month of April. But having an aversion to hot days, as soon as it hits 80° (as it has a couple of times earlier this month), I ask maintenance to turn off the boilers and to "fire up" the air conditioners in the church. Big mistake. I have already made a note to myself for next year not to turn off the boilers in the church at least until May, so that you may not have to suffer year after year. For my penance, I am also very cold here in the rectory during this unseasonably cold April so hopefully this will make up somewhat for my sin.

Our sympathy is extended to the family of Robin Meadows as we celebrated her Funeral Mass last Friday. Robin was very close to her daughter Brittany and strove to be faithful to God as she attended Mass and had a devotion to St. Rita. May she rest in the peace of the Risen Lord.

We also celebrated the Mass of Christian Burial for Fred Hadacek last Saturday. I remember his brother Joe very well who also died suddenly last June. I also had the funeral for their sister Helen (known as "Dolly") back in 2018. Fred was uncle and great uncle to many people and was married to Eileen for 42 years. Fred was a "living historian" and really enjoyed being part of enactments of the American Revolutionary War & of the French Indian War. He had a devotion to St. Francis of Assisi so we pray for his intercession as we commend Freddy to God.

Congratulations to the parents of Ashlee Schrippa & Matthew Smith who were wedded here last Saturday. May they know and reveal the love of God to each other and enjoy a long and happy marriage.

Congratulations also to Aaron Horak who will receive the Sacrament of Confirmation at the 4pm Saturday Mass this weekend. We pray that the Catholic faith will continue to grow within him as he completes the Sacraments of Initiation.

Deacon Pat and Joan & I will be having dinner with Father Dennis O'Grady this week and we will be sure to tell him of your thoughts & prayers. We remain grateful for the many years he celebrated Mass with us here at St. Leo's and pray that God may help him to enjoy his retirement years.

The ushers (whose ministry we appreciate) try to invite people to bring up the offertory gifts of bread & water & wine, especially those who are having that Mass offered in memory of someone. But sometimes those people who scheduled the Mass intention are not able to be present with us so if you would like to be asked to bring up the gifts, please let an usher know & they will be happy to invite you to do so when needed.

We continue to see many people coming to the talks on Tuesday & Friday evenings in our parish center from 7-8pm. They are given by a team of 5 people...a priest, a married couple & two seminarians...who share their experiences of suffering in order to witness how their faith has really helped them during these times and continues to sustain them and bring them joy. Their purpose in doing this is help develop a small community (or several) within the larger parish community so that people may know that they are loved and cared for, especially when they need the support of others in faith. Please consider joining us & pray for those who already have.

Fr. James Delmity

HEART OF A SHEPHERD

Building for Today. Providing for Tomorrow.

ONE PRIEST'S RETIREMENT: LIVING WITH PURPOSE AND JOY

Fr. John Manning has lived a full life in the Cleveland Diocese. He was ordained in 1972 and served at several parishes – including 21 years as pastor at St. Vincent de Paul Church – but most of his career was on the faculty of Borromeo College and St. Mary's Seminary and Graduate School of Theology. Though still teaching an occasional course, Fr. Manning retired in 2021.

Like many retired priests, Fr. Manning stays active in the church and is generous with his time. He fills in for pastors, helps with penance services, and gives presentations in the Theology on Tap program, including a series on the history of the Catholic Church in Cleveland, sharing his deep knowledge of history with humor and personal anecdotes.

As former Bishop's Delegate for Senior Priests, Fr. Manning says many are pleased the diocese remembers their needs, especially with additional support from the Heart of a Shepherd campaign.

"Many are retiring now, and there's concern about finances as we rely on Social Security and the retired clergy pension. An increase is so important with inflation in groceries and other expenses."

"... I WAS ORDAINED TO DO - TO PREACH, CELEBRATE AND WALK WITH PEOPLE."

He was astounded by the generosity of donors to the Heart of a Shepherd campaign. "I thought most people wouldn't know about the need for seminary renovations or helping retired priests. I've heard many priests say it is so gratifying and impressive."

Protect Women Ohio has created these Town Hall meetings to educate the people of Ohio on why this Proposal to change the Constitution of the State of Ohio MUST be stopped.

In the words of National review online: "the proposed amendment would outlaw virtually any restrictions on abortion and all other procedures, including sex change surgeries, that touch on reproduction, for both adults and minors. It would cancel out not only parental-consent laws but also mere parental notification for minors' abortions or sex-change surgeries; strike down health protections for people of all ages who undergo these procedures, including requirements that a qualified physician perform them; and erase any meaningful limits on late-term abortions."
