MEMORIES

The first St Leo's "Oktoberfest" was the idea of Fr. Dan Schlegel. He borrowed some German music tapes from my husband, George Schleimer, to play at the Oktoberfest. We had Warsteiner beer at this gathering. The Seniors Group helped at the Oktoberfest. My dad, Ed Wolff, along with Christy Pupkiewicz, made the coffee and manned the large-crowd coffee pot. Meanwhile, my mom, Helen Wolff, helped Helene Pupkiewicz and others display and sell pastries. Being German, my dad sported his green Bavarian hat while my mom wore the traditional Black Forest red bollenhut with traditional red pom poms in top. Prosit! -- Mary Ann Thornton

God's Garden

God looked around His garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine".
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

READINGS FOR THE WEEK

FIRST READING: ISAIAH 25:6-10

The mountain dearest to the people of Israel was Mount Zion, the place upon which Jerusalem's temple was built. The prophet Isaiah, preaching during a time of political upheaval, foresees a day when God will gather on Mount Zion all the people of the world for a great banquet.

SECOND READING: PHILIPPIANS 4:12-14, 19-20

On his missionary journeys, Paul took pride in supporting himself as a leatherworker. Now it's different. Paul is in prison and dependent upon his beloved Philippians. They generously sent him help, the only Christian community known to do so. As he now concludes his letter to them, Paul thanks them for their support and encouragement.

MONDAY Rom 1:1-7/Ps 98:1, 2-3ab, 3cd-4/Lk 11:29-32

A DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Serving Others (Part 3 of 3)

In the last two weeks, we have discussed the importance of serving others as a way to focus less on ourselves, as well as ways to maintain the delicate balance of serving others and taking care of ourselves at the same time. This week, I thought it might be useful to discuss serving and loving God. How do we love and serve God? When I reflect on serving God, it reminds me of how frequently we can forget the one-on-one intimacy that God is calling us to with Him. It is useful to imagine God like we would any relationship in our life. Imagine a friendship or spousal relationship in your life. Would it be loving to serve them by cleaning their home, washing their car, and serving them food, but then never sitting down to talk to them and spend time with them? On the other hand, would it be loving to spend time with them getting to know them, but then be unwilling to do anything for them? The same is true in our relationship with God. We love and serve God by praying AND serving our fellow brothers and sisters. If we try to do one without the other, we have missed the point of the Gospel. Praying and pursuing good boundaries helps us to maintain our spiritual life and mental health, while serving others helps us to get outside of ourselves and find compassion, peace, and joy in our service. Just like any loving relationship, God wants to know us and for us to know Him, and that only happens by taking the time to sit with Him. This week, consider reflecting on the call to love and serve God, as well as the call to one-on-one intimacy with Him like we do in our current daily loving relationships. —Luke Brown, LPCC

Everyday Stewardship

"God Will Provide" Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Art Buchwald, the longtime humorist for the Washington Post who died in 2007 is credited with saying, "The best things in life aren't things." As Christians, we know this statement to be true. Certainly the best things in our lives are not those items that money can buy or things we can create in the material world. Faith, hope, and love are more precious than anything we can see with our eyes. Yet, as humans we often find ourselves longing for the very things that we claim are not nearly as valuable. We lose sight of what is real and true.

Paul wrote in the fourth chapter of his Letter to the Philippians that he has experienced both living with abundance and then with very little. Regardless of what we have in terms of worldly goods, Paul reminds us that God provides for all our needs. God may not provide for our wants, but he does give us what we need.

The flesh seeks what it wants, but the spirit seeks what it needs. In a stewardship way of life, we must always remind ourselves that true wealth never comes from material possessions and money. True wealth comes from the love we share, the faith we develop, and the hope we bring to others. The best things in life aren't free, though. They require work, commitment, and fortitude. We need to cultivate these things daily. If we are serious about living life in this way, we will find that when our days on this earth are through, we really had it all.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners,

I received an email from a reputable religious goods store which showed pictures of various statues they had obtained & were selling. They are all marble statues which means they would be suitable for display either inside or outside. We have received many donations in recent years, including from people who thoughtfully remembered St. Leo in their will, but I have not been able to come up with anything to use those donations for, until now. One of the statues on display which “caught my eye” (you’ll get that in a minute) was one of St. Lucy (also referred to as St. Lucia). I saw the actual body of St. Lucy which is in a glass casket behind the high altar of a church in Venice. She is clothed in a red dress as she had died as a martyr. All we really know about her is that she was very young (probably about 21). She was born in 283 and died in 304 during the Diocletianic Persecution of the Church. Also known as Lucia of Syracuse, St. Lucy is also one of 8 women (including the Blessed Virgin Mary) who is mentioned in the first Eucharistic Prayer (also known as the “Roman Canon”), which I tend to use mainly at Christmas and Easter time. Her feast day is December 13th. What we do know about her is that a disappointed suitor accused Lucy of being a Christian, and so she was executed in Sicily. In medieval accounts about her, Lucy’s eyes were gouged out prior to her execution. In this statue, you can see therefore a pair of eyes on a dish which Lucy is holding in her left hand, and palm branches in her right hand, which is an ancient biblical symbol of martyrdom. Since St. Lucy is patron of those with no or poor eyesight, I thought she would be a good patron for us as many in our parish struggle with their vision, especially as they get older (I myself had a detached retina & almost lost vision in my left eye). You will be able to see this beautiful marble statue which stands 5 feet, 7 inches, if you look to the right of where our statue of St. Francis of Assisi is at by the side doors of the church, which is where most people enter our church from the rectory parking lot. St. Lucy will be placed on the old base of our marble pulpit and will be against the wall of the sacristy. So if you have made a donation in recent years with no expressed purpose in mind, please know we are grateful that we were able to purchase this statue due to your generosity. St. Lucy, pray for us!

On October 6th, I celebrated the funeral Mass for Sara Stupic, and I was so happy to see several parishioners there to pray for her. She was known especially by those in the Senior group and by many whom she would see & talk to at Mass. Sara was a very devout Catholic and a gentle and kind person who has been living in another state for about a year where she could be close to relatives. But they assured me that she joined us via livestream for Mass here at St. Leo’s. Sara was married to her husband Edward for 32 years and had many nieces & nephews. Sara served as a Eucharistic Minister here and really enjoyed distributing the Body & Blood of Christ to others. May she now enjoy the presence of Christ forever in the kingdom promised to those who are faithful to him.

I’d like to remind you that this Sunday evening (October 15th), Trapper Jack will speak to us about the Eucharist at 6pm in the church. Jack has spoken to us before and all who have heard him were really grateful for his insights into our Catholic Faith. In fact, his visit is very timely as Trapper is legally blind and so we will especially ask for St. Lucy’s intercession on his behalf. So please join us as we hear him speak of his own experience of the Eucharist and how important that has been in his life of faith.

Fr. James Schmitz

8th Grade Retreat | Camp Christopher

The 8th graders spent time on retreat down in Stow, OH back on October 4th, where they learned and practiced the different ways of praying.

Please remember this keep this class in your own prayers. Lift up ALL of our students at St. Leo the Great. Pray that they let the good Lord into their hearts and minds so they may find and keep confidence in who they are in their relationship with our Creator— who made us all unique but also in His own image and likeness and longs for us to be with Him with one another in Communion. May they have reverence for a Father— who truly loves and forgives. May they find compassion and comfort with a Brother—who walks with us in our suffering. Pray they find Peace from a Prophet— who teaches us “Whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come into judgment, but has passed from death to life!” (John 5:24).

In a world where there is increasing pressure and reliance upon a society that so easily influences and manipulates the young by telling them who they should be, we must never stop praying that our students spend time in the Word and learn the ways of the Apostles so that they may be awakened to who they truly ARE in Christ and remember that we are all called to be saints.

Issue 1 Puts Women at Risk - Vote NO by November 7

The Catholic Church honors Mary, the Mother of God, as the perfect model of the love that God wants to share with every person. When Catholics look to Mary, her cousin Elizabeth, or her ancestor Ruth, we see that God's plan for the world's salvation was entrusted to women. In Ohio, an amendment on this November's ballot puts women at risk and the Catholic Church cannot stand by as women are threatened in our state. The Catholic bishops of Ohio urge the faithful to Vote NO on Issue 1, which puts women at risk by...

- Endangering health and safety standards for women – Ohio laws that require that a woman has guaranteed access to a hospital during an abortion in case of an emergency or the 24-hour waiting period before having an abortion could be struck down.

Issue 1 claims to help women, but this policy would put women at risk. Our faith teaches us that pregnant women deserve a community of support, so Catholics cannot be silent when an extreme amendment threatens to remove protections for women's health and safety.

PRAYER BEFORE AN ELECTION

Lord God, as the election approaches, we seek to better understand the issues and concerns that confront our city/state/country, and how the Gospel compels us to respond as faithful citizens in our community.

We ask for eyes that are free from blindness so that we might see each other as brothers and sisters, one and equal in dignity, especially those who are victims of abuse and violence, deceit and poverty.

We ask for ears that will hear the cries of children unborn and those abandoned, Men and women oppressed because of race or creed, religion or gender.

We ask for minds and hearts that are open to hearing the voice of leaders who will bring us closer to your Kingdom.

We pray for discernment so that we may choose leaders who hear your Word, live your love, and keep in the ways of your truth as they follow in the steps of Jesus and his Apostles and guide us to your Kingdom of justice and peace.

Pro-Life Group Meeting

Wednesday October 18, 2023 at 1:00 pm
in the Parish Center. This month we will be studying and discussing the upcoming November election, especially issue 1 on the ballot that will PERMANENTLY remove the bans on abortion in Ohio at all stages. ALL ARE WELCOME!

Because our country remains under constant attack from evil, we ask all to continue praying to St. Michael the Archangel, as often as you can. He can help us defeat the enemy.

Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke them, we humbly pray, and cast into Hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
