SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL

Reach out and help a needy family!
Not every parishioner can be in the right place at the right time to help a needy family as Jesus asks. The St. Vincent de Paul Outreach Organization has been setup to do just that. Your help through the Poor Boxes assists your SVDP group in providing food, clothing, utility assistance, etc. to those in need. Reach out and help a needy family with your donation. Thank You!

FEAST OF ST. BLAISE

The Feast Day of St. Blaise was Friday, February 3rd. Blessing of the Throats will be offered on Saturday, February 4th and Sunday, February 5th after every Mass.

WORLD DAY FOR CONSECRATED LIFE

This Sunday we celebrate World Day for Consecrated Life. We recognize and give thanks for those who have consecrated their lives to God and the Church through the vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience. The consecrated life is one way that women and men live out their baptismal commitment as followers of Jesus. Please pray for Fr. Jim and all those who have made commitments in the consecrated life, and be sure to thank them on their special day.

PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN

The Diocese of Cleveland's "Protecting God's Children" program is a continuing effort to instruct and inform everyone about the protection of children from sexual abuse. To report any past or present suspected inappropriate behavior toward children by priests, deacons, religious, lay ecclesial ministers or personnel associated with the Church, please contact the Diocesan Response Service Office at (216)334-2999 or via email at response_services@dioceseofcleveland.org. You are also asked to immediately inform local authorities about inappropriate behavior. A good way to become more aware and recognize warning signs of abuse is to complete a Virtus Training. For more information or to sign up for a class please visit Virtusonline.org.

Please mark your calendars to join us for Mass and the events and activities throughout the year!

MEMORIES

Before some of the changes from the Second Vatican Council were implemented, girls and women needed to wear a head covering when they entered the church. If the schoolchildren were going into the church to attend Mass, go to confession, or learn about a sacrament, one of the nuns who taught at the school would stand at the door of the church with a box of facial tissues. The nun would place a facial tissue on the head of any girl not wearing a veil, scarf or other head covering. Of course, the tricky part was keeping the facial tissue on your head the entire time you were in church.

Do you have a favorite memory from the past 75 years? If so, please submit it to nzola@leothegreat.org. We also welcome photos throughout the year of the people and events taking place. Please forward your photos to photos@leothegreat.org.

DID YOU KNOW?

In 1955, Rev. Sylvester P. Lux, first pastor of St. Leo the Great, appealed to the parishioners for any gem stones that they could spare. The stones were fashioned into the shape of a cross on a 14-karat gold overlay chalice, bearing an inscription on the base from the People of St Leo Parish. A matching paten bears an etching of the image of St. Leo the Great.

As part of the 50th anniversary celebration the chalice was replated and the paten buffed and polished, and throughout the years the names of the six former pastors of St. Leo have been added to the bottom.

The chalice is a remembrance of the sacrifices on which this parish was built and is used for special liturgical celebrations.

READINGS FOR THE WEEK

FIRST READING: ISAIAH 58: 7-10

The Jewish people had just returned from exile in Babylon. They were poor. The prophet in today's reading reminds them of the religious practice that pleases God most of all, and he encourages them to share the little they have with one another.

SECOND READING: 1 CORINTHIANS 2:1-5

In this reading, Paul continues to address the problem of factions in Corinth. One group followed a Christian named Apollos, an eloquent preacher who came there after Paul had left. Some criticized Paul because his oratory didn't compare with that of Apollos. In today's passage, Paul defends his preaching style.

SUNDAY Is 58:7-10/Ps 112:4-5, 6-7, 8-9 (4a)/1 Cor 2:1-5/Mt 5:13-16

ENCOURAGE A DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Gospel Meditation

I recently decided to learn to cook. As I sit at the feet of various YouTube cooking masters, I notice how much of cooking is adding ingredients that don't provide any more nourishment, like herbs and other seasonings. But man! They make all the difference because they make the meal delightful to eat and share.

Jesus calls his disciples "salt of the world." No one eats just salt. So, Christians are not meant to replace or do away with the world. They are meant to be agents of preservation and glorification. Notice how often these days the Church seeks to preserve what is threatened: the goodness of marital and family love, the desires of young people for greatness, the value of honest work, healthy economics, and altruistic political engagement, the dignity of the poor and vulnerable. Over and over, we say to a world who wants to throw things out, "It's worth saving! We'll preserve it! We'll show you it's wonderful." If we can't engage the world like that, Jesus says we are the ones who get thrown out, because salt alone is worthless.

Jesus only asks us to do for others what he does for us. He is the "salt" of everything in our lives. Is there something in your life starting to rot a bit? Something tasting bland and boring? Let Jesus salt it and see if you like it better.
— Father John Muir

SEEING GOD IN OUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

What's the Buzz?

By Tracy Earl Welliver, MT

When a new store or restaurant opens in the area, there can be quite a buzz. People want to see what the place is like. If the establishment is lucky, a positive word of mouth can spread all over the area. The challenge then becomes keeping that buzz alive. If people start to think that the new place is not as good as advertised or they had hoped, the crowds will dwindle and soon the new place will simply become an old place. Even worse, it could become a closed place.

If you were a store owner, what would you do to attract people? Would you always put your best foot forward? How hard would you work to show everybody that your place is worth repeated visits and patronage?

You may not be an entrepreneur with your own business, but you do have your parish community. This is your community and what you do and how you act in the world around you will either add to a buzz or a lack of interest. How you use the gifts you and your community have been given will do a lot to attract people and cause them to talk. You will be like a city on top of a mountain that no one can miss. Can your light shine so bright that it can be seen from miles around? You may be only one person, but you are a part of something greater than yourself. Your stewardship can easily become contagious. At a time when too many are choosing to disregard the Church, it is time to create a positive buzz.

PRACTICING CATHOLIC

If

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

If ...It's a surprising little word — if. For such a short word, it holds an abundance of excuses.

Personally, I could buy a new car if I had a dollar for every time I used the word "if" to explain away my own flaws. "If I wasn't so tired. If we had more money. If the kids weren't always on my last nerve. If I had more talent. If life wasn't so hard."

If, if, if. I don't always feel like being the salt of the earth. Can't someone else season the dish? Sometimes it's more than I want to give, more than I want to do, more than I want to be. Sharing my bread, sheltering the oppressed, clothing the naked, and accompanying my neighbor — doing these things in the literal or figurative sense can be completely exhausting. Mediocrity is so easy. It's so comfortable.

But if. It looms again, that short but powerful word.

"If" can be deep with excuses, but it can also be wide with possibility. If I bring it all to God. If I stop relying on my own abilities. If I prayed more than I talked. If I make my heart firm. If my faith does not rest on human wisdom.

If not me, who? If not now, when?

"You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden." — Matthew 5:14

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners,

Thank you for your prayers for my stepmother, Mildred. They were heard and answered as she passed away last Sunday morning. The family is still considering funeral arrangements as she has a daughter in California who is not able to travel at this time so they may not plan something until the summer. Again I am so grateful for your prayers. I am also deeply grateful that she was able to bring such joy to my dad for over 16 years of marriage and over 20 years of time spent together. We certainly never thought they would have been together for so long when they announced their marriage plans so many years ago! But as many of you know, having a companion later in life is such a great blessing, especially after a spouse has died. Dad is aware that she has passed but is not really talking much about anything right now, unless it pertains to the present moment, and as far as Mildred is concerned, that is another blessing. He is comfortable and we are just trying to enjoy whatever time we have left with him. Please keep in prayer all those whom I anoint, all the sick of our parish and of our loved ones, and those who share in the cross of Christ through their illness. They will be consoled in the life to come.

Friday was the feast of St. Blaise so we will have the blessing of throats after all the Masses this weekend so feel free to come up for that during the closing song.

Having just anointed a parishioner, I would like to offer a reminder to you regarding what the Church can do for you or a loved one at the time of serious illness or death. First, a distinction between the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick & Last Rites is always helpful as these two rituals were seen as one thing for a number of years but have been separated by the Church in more recent years (actually in the last 50 years or so). The Anointing of the Sick can (& should) be requested by anyone who has a serious illness, whether that be physical, emotional, mental or spiritual. It is one of the 7 sacraments of the Church and finds its biblical basis in the Letter of St. James: "Are there any who are sick among you? Let them send for the priests of the Church and the priests will anoint them with oil." This is how the early Church celebrated this sacrament for its sick members and we continue to do this today. It is a prayer for healing, which may be answered in a variety of ways by the Lord, either physically or spiritually. It can also be received by those who are "advanced in age" (your call, not mine!). It can be repeated as often as necessary. I can offer this sacrament to you before or after Mass, as I often do at the request of people who have received news of a serious illness or who are facing surgery, so please feel free to ask any time. I am often called to the home of parishioners or go to nursing homes or hospitals to celebrate this sacrament (unless they have a chaplain).

The Last Rites are simply prayers that are said before or after death as we pray for the soul of the one who has died or expected to die soon and has already received the sacraments. Sometimes a person may be anointed at the same time if they have not been anointed recently (but only if they are still living for the sacraments are only for the living). Confession is offered at this time as well if a person is able to speak. Though the Sacrament of Anointing and the Last Rites are two separate prayers, they can be combined and at one time were always given together in what was called "Extreme Unction" or the anointing of someone in danger of death. But we hope to walk the journey with someone who is ill by anointing them long before death may come. I offer this information in the hope that you will request the Church's prayers & sacraments in time of need.

Fr. James Schmitz

MIRACULOUS MEDAL

What is the "Miraculous Medal" and why is it called that?

The medal of the Immaculate Conception that has come to be called simply the "Miraculous Medal" dates back to an apparition of Mary to Saint Catherine Laboure, who was then a novice sister with the Daughters of Charity. On November 27, 1830, Our Lady appeared to her standing on a globe, with shafts of light streaming from her hands and the words, "O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee," surrounding the image. In the same vision, Catherine saw a capital "M" with a cross above it and below two hearts. Catherine seemed to hear a voice telling her to have what she saw struck as a medal and a promise that those who wore the medal would have the protection and intercession of the Mother of God. The first 1,500 of medals were distributed in 1832. Many miraculous favors were attributed to the use of the medal.

Saint Catherine's "Miraculous Medal" is among the recognizable and popular symbols of modern Catholicism. Reflecting on its widespread use, the 2001 Vatican document, "Directory on Popular Piety and Liturgy," observes that the medal "recalls the mystery of Redemption, the love of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and of the Sorrowful Heart of Mary. It signifies the mediatory role of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the mystery of the Church, the relationship between Heaven and earth, this life and eternal life."

You can find plenty of these (donated; some new/used) medallions at the Rectory Office. If interested, feel free to stop by during regular hours to look.
