SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL

To be sure your charitable donations are being used the way you intend them to be, please consider donating to your St. Vincent de Paul Outreach Organization throughout the year. We are a volunteer organization that provides assistance to the needy in our area, whether it is due to job layoffs, illness or other misfortunes. No questions are asked about religious affiliations, and everything is kept confidential.

The organization prides itself on the fact that ALL donations go directly back to the people we serve. There is NO overhead, NO administrative costs and ALL services are volunteered, so contributors can be assured their donations are being put to best use.

Remember that people need help throughout the year. Of course there is always a sharp increase for our services at this time of the year as the weather is colder. Our Poor Boxes are located at the entrance of the Church or you can put your donation in an envelope and mark it "SVDP" and drop it in the collection basket or take it to the rectory office. We thank you for your continued support.

ROSARY

Please join us for the recitation of the rosary in church on:

Thursday, January 19th at 7:00 p.m.

Make the rosary a part of your New Year's resolution.

Please enter through the doors closest to the rectory.

HOLY HOUR

There will be a Respect Life Holy Hour in the Church on:

Sunday, January 22 at 6:30p.m.

Please join us for an hour of prayer for the respect and dignity of all human life.

ORNAMENTS

If you placed an ornament with the name of a loved one on one of the Christmas trees, the ornaments were removed and placed in containers in the main vestibule of the church. If a loved one passed away during the year, an ornament was made and placed on the tree closest to the tabernacle. Please pick up the ornaments before January 31st.

Are you a former student of St. Leo School? Is your child a former student of St. Leo School? Please let us know by completing a form on the parish website. Visit leothegreat.org Find Alumni Association under the Organizations tab. We hope to hear from you!

Please mark your calendars to join us for Mass and the events and activities throughout the year!

MEMORIES

Because we were of the Baby Boomer generation, there were often more than one class for each grade in the school. I think we were 30+ in a class. Sometimes there were split classes, where half the students were in one grade and the other half in another. When I was in sixth grade, we were in a split class with some of the seventh graders. When that school year ended, our sixth graders were skipped over seventh and we went right into eighth grade. That year (sixth) I vividly remember Sr. Michael. Eighth grade was Sr. Emmerencia. Those nuns were tough! —Chris Rath

Do you have a favorite memory from the past 75 years? If so, please submit it to nzola@leothegreat.org.

We welcome photos throughout the year of the people and events taking place. Please forward your photos to photos@leothegreat.org.

Each of the statues displayed in the manger at Christmas was donated by a parishioner in memory of a loved one.

REMINDER: The Rectory Office WILL BE CLOSED on Monday, January 16th in observance of Martin Luther King, Jr. Day. It will reopen Tuesday, January 17th at 9:00a.m.

Our lives begin to end the day we become silent about things that matter.

READINGS FOR THE WEEK

FIRST READING: ISAIAH 49:3, 5-6

The book of Isaiah in four different places speaks of a mysterious servant of God. This servant is sent to do great and marvelous things that touch the entire world. Christians have traditionally thought of Jesus as the fulfillment of these passages.

SECOND READING: 1 CORINTHIANS 1:1-3

For the Next several Sundays our second reading will be taken from the first letter of Paul to the Corinthians. Today's reading presents the opening words of that letter. It is an example of the salutation used in classical letter writing: Paul identifies himself, acknowledges the community to whom he is writing, and extends warm personal greetings.

SUNDAY Is 49:3, 5-6/Ps 40:2, 4, 7-8, 8-9, 10/1 Cor 1:1-3/Jn 1:29-34

MONDAY Heb 5:1-10/Ps 110:1, 2, 3, 4/Mk 2:18-22

TUESDAY Heb 6:10-20/Ps 111:1-2, 4-5, 9 and 10c/Mk 2:23-28

WEDNESDAY Heb 7:1-3, 15-17/Ps 110:1, 2, 3, 4/Mk 3:1-6

THURSDAY Heb 7:25—8:6/Ps 40:7-8a, 8b-9, 10, 17/Mk 3:7-12

FRIDAY Heb 8:6-13/Ps 85:8 and 10, 11-12, 13-14/Mk 3:13-19

SATURDAY Heb 9:2-3, 11-14/Ps 47:2-3, 6-7, 8-9/Mk 3:20-2

JOHN HARWOOD
DIOCESE OF YOUNGSTOWN

Every week we pray for those discerning a vocation in religious life. Pray that they may continue to persevere and that others may respond to God's call.

ENCOURAGE A DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

January 15, 2023 | Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

When I was a kid, I remember the priest at Mass announcing, “The Lamb of God!” Frankly, it struck me as nonsense. I thought: Why in the world does God have a lamb? And where is this lamb?

John the Baptist sees Jesus coming toward him and announces, “Behold the lamb of God.” His Jewish listeners knew what he meant. God’s lamb is the thing that is sacrificed at the Jewish Passover and consumed by the participants. For almost a thousand years, lambs were ritually slaughtered and eaten in Jerusalem at Passover. The lamb meant sacrifice, freedom from sin, and communion with God. The Baptist is saying in effect, “This man will be ritually sacrificed and consumed so that God’s people may be free from sin and united to God.”

It’s crucial to relate to Jesus as a friend, brother, teacher, and Lord of our lives. But we should also learn to interact with Him as our lamb of God. That means we intentionally place on him our sins, sadnesses, and hopes, and offer him to God. Then we consume him to make us free. This is what we do at every Mass. That’s why he is the Lamb of God.

— Father John Muir

SEEING GOD IN OUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Showing up

I broke my foot once, when my second child was only 12 weeks old, and I was about to move houses. For six weeks I was confined to a chair, a shrieking newborn in my arms, a toddler running circles around me, and my right foot rendered useless by a plaster cast. I couldn’t do anything without assistance. I couldn’t eat or get a drink or change my clothes or feed my children.

My family was in dire straits. A lot of people offered help, but there was a core group of friends and family members who really saved us.

These are the people who turned up in my driveway with empty vans and cooked meals. These are the people who blocked off their Saturdays to haul furniture, mow our lawn, and run after unruly kids. These are the people who said: “Here I am. Give me a job.”

If you’ve ever really, really needed another person’s help, you know that “showing up” means more than saying: “Let me know what you need.” It means saying: “I’m already here. Tell me what to do.”

So often, I pay lip service to the idea of submission. “What do you want, God?” I ask, and I secretly hope that what He wants isn’t one of those things that I’m not willing to give.

What if I really strove to “show up” for God? What if I was ready to give what He asks of me, whatever it is?

— Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Play That One Again

How many times have you sung the church song, “Here I Am, Lord”? If you grew up Catholic and are around my age (still 50!), the answer is more than you can count. The song that quotes various verses of Scripture is sung using guitar, piano, or organ, by cantors and choirs, in traditional and modern churches. It is truly a Catholic greatest hit of the modern Church. The question is how many times when singing the refrain have you really taken to heart what you were singing.

“Here I am, Lord; is it I, Lord? I have heard you calling in the night.” Like the biblical figure Samuel, we are responding to the call of God by asking for clarification that we are indeed the one being called. We then follow up the question with a profound statement: “I will go if You lead me.” It is profound because we are pledging to our God that we are willing to go wherever He wants. We are accepting the challenge put forth in the U.S. Bishops’ pastoral letter, “Stewardship: A Disciple’s Response,” to become mature disciples who respond to the call of Jesus Christ regardless of the cost. We have sung this pledge repeatedly for many years.

We never have any idea what God will call us to do and where to go. Sometimes the request can ask us for quite a lot. Hopefully, we respond like a mature disciple. If not, maybe we should reflect more the next time this song is played. The melody will not allow for the words, “I will see if I am busy and then decide to go if you lead me.” Then again, I don’t want to sing that to God, the source of all life anyway. Do you?

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MT

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners,

I write this on Tuesday, January 10th, and I just celebrated the 8:30am Mass. I wore green vestments as we are now back in the First Week of Ordinary Time and will remain here until Wednesday, February 22nd, which is Ash Wednesday, the first day of Lent. For God, there really is no “ordinary time” as God is always doing extraordinary things for us as his plan for the world continues to unfold day by day. We may not be conscious of what the plan is, but we do know that God’s purposes are always good, leading us to the fulfillment of all time, to the coming of his eternal kingdom. This should make us always joyful and always at peace, regardless of what is happening in our world or in our individual lives. God loves us. God loves the world he has created. Though we have made quite a mess of things because of our sin, God in his mercy will “make all things turn out for good.” And as we say in the renewal of our baptismal promises, “This is our faith and we are proud to profess it in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

A couple of quick reminders: the rectory office will be closed on Monday, January 16th, in observance of Martin Luther King Jr. Day, and our Parish Council will meet on Tuesday, January 17th at 7pm in the rectory meeting room.

I sent an email to all those going on the Italy Trip in March (coming up fast!) letting them know that we will have a meeting on Sunday, January 29th at Noonish over in the Parish Center. We will have coffee & donuts & will have the opportunity to meet the others going on the trip & to share some practical information, based on those who have traveled abroad before, especially to Italy. So in case you didn’t get the email, consider this your invitation.

I wanted to let you know that we had a technical difficulty (actually a lapse in my memory) which caused our 4pm Mass on Saturday, December 31st, not to be livestreamed. Instead, many people watched the 8:30am Mass that I celebrated the day before on Friday, December 30th. That Mass was only 30 minutes long so in case you wondered why Mass was so much shorter than usual, that is the reason. We’re glad you had something to watch anyway.

Thanks again for your continued prayers for my Dad & his wife Mildred. Mildred is back at Vitalia in Strongsville and doing fairly well though her legs keep swelling up with fluid because of her congestive heart failure. My dad is still in the skilled nursing facility as he is still very confused. He does not really know where he is or why he is there, only that he’s not “at home.” He usually knows who his family members are when we are visiting him but his memory comes & goes. He is not in pain or any real discomfort and that is a great blessing, but we just don’t know where this is going. Some days he eats well, has good memory, & carries on conversations, and other days none of this is true. So we take it day by day & just pray for the guidance to know which direction we need to go in. But again, I thank you for your concern & prayers.

I plan on visiting Nativity Parish in Lorain on Wednesday, January 11th, along with Deacon Pat & Joan Berigan, to view the relics of Blessed Carlo Acutis, a young millennial fascinated by the Eucharist. He loved playing video games, but loved Jesus more, using his computer skills to create a website to teach others about the Eucharist. Since his First Communion, he attended Mass daily and brought his family back to the faith. He died in 2006 at age 15 of leukemia, offering up his suffering for the Pope and the Church. I spoke about him at Mass a couple of years ago. What a gift to see such deep faith in a young person today.
