MEMORIES

Before the current church was built, the grounds were covered with trees, bushes, and wild plants so thick that you couldn't see the school, convent, and existing church from West 25th Street. In the spring and after a heavy rain, lower portions of the wooded area would be under several inches of water. Along West 25th Street a builder had dumped several piles of dirt. During their summer vacation, the kids in the neighborhood enjoyed riding their bikes up and down the piles of dirt and exploring the wooded area.

Do you have a favorite memory from the past 75 years? If so, please submit it to nzola@leothegreat.org.

We also welcome photos throughout the year of the people and events taking place. Do you have any photos from the Mass with the Bishop and social on October 9th? Please forward your photos to: photos@leothegreat.org

The students in the Faith Formation program celebrated the parish's 75th anniversary on their last day of class. Each student had two craft projects to complete and take home -- a wooden birdhouse in the shape of a church and an image of a stained-glass cross. The final treat of the day was a "goodie" bag with chocolate chip cookies.

READINGS FOR THE WEEK

FRIST READING: EXODUS 19:2-6

The book of Exodus tells of the Israelites escape from Egypt and their journey to Mount Sinai some 1200 hundred years before Christ. In today's passage, the stage is set for the Old Testament's most dramatic encounter between God and the chosen people.

SECOND READING: ROMANS 5:6-11

Today and for many Sundays hereafter, our second reading will be taken from Paul's letter to the Romans. The theme of today's section from Paul's letter to the Roman's is the great theological question of how sinners can be united with God who is all holy. Paul presents the Christian answer to this question.

A DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

In the backyard of the house where I live with other priests, there is a lemon tree which produces a huge amount of fruit. One evening in the spring I needed some lemons for a chicken dish. I glanced from the kitchen and saw the tree bursting with large, bright, gorgeous lemons, hanging thick on seemingly every branch. Turning to Fr. Bob (I'll change his name to protect the innocent) who sat on the couch, I said, "Father, could you pick a few lemons for me?" He said sure and into the backyard he went. He returned a few minutes later empty-handed. "John, there's no lemons. Sorry." I said, "What are you talking about?" I looked again and saw the grapefruit tree on the other side of the yard, which had recently been picked clean of fruit. He didn't see the abundant fruit because he was looking in the wrong place!

Like Fr. Bob, we sadly don't see the fruit all around us. We think that the culture is spiraling down, young people avoid church, and the future looks bleak. Why go out into the world and work? The world looks like a fruitless tree.

Jesus doesn't see things that way. This week he tells us, "The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few." Look again: there is spiritual fruit hanging all around us! The lonely ready to be visited. The sick ready to be healed. The forgotten ready to be remembered. The poor ready to be treated with dignity. The sad ready to be consoled. The young ready for the Gospel. So, let's ask the Lord to send laborers to get to work. And he will. He might send you and me. Just remember to look at the correct trees. — Father John Muir

MASS

Question: I've noticed that when I go to Mass at different parishes, sometimes people say and do different things. Why is that?

Answer: The Mass in its current form has taken shape over the course of 2,000 years. Over time, traditions, structures, and prayers have been put into place. There are certain rubrics for the Mass that are normative wherever you go. This means you could attend Mass in Malawi or Thailand or Italy and still watch the same basic liturgy unfold, even if you don't understand the language. There may be some cultural differences from place to place, things that aren't specifically listed. For example, in the United States most people go up for Communion in a nice neat line. In Europe, everyone gets up around the same time. It's a bit of a free-for-all! Some people might take it upon themselves to change things individually. People may not like something that feels too "liberal" or "conservative," and they may take a well-meaning stance in the opposite direction. When people (including the presiders) do things that are distracting or change the liturgy, it introduces an element that breaks the unity of the assembled community. The important thing to remember is that we gather as the Body of Christ to celebrate the Eucharist. If you are confused, ask! If you are frustrated, pray for the spirit of charity.

PRACTICING CATHOLIC — "THE TOY"

By: Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

What does it mean to be God's "special possession"? Our world is dominated by things, objects, possessions. To say we are a materialistic culture is an understatement. In that context, it can be really hard to fully appreciate the meaning of being "possessed" by God. I have so many possessions, after all. I acquire and discard them without thought. I am even overwhelmed by them. Sometimes, it feels like they possess me.

But then I think of the week after Christmas in a house with small children. In that week, there is always The Toy. The Toy that won the heart of your child under the tree, The Toy to which they emotionally attached themselves in a whirlwind of twinkle lights and sugar cookies. For that one week, The Toy is all there is. There were many gifts, but The Toy is special, and there can only be one.

So, what does it mean to be "possessed" by God? What does it mean to be of his people? It means you will be cherished and protected in ways you do not deserve and cannot understand. It means you are distinguished not by your own merit, but by the love with which you are beheld. It means that you are always The Toy, and every day is Christmas.

"Therefore, if you hearken to my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my special possession, dearer to me than all other people, though all the earth is mine." — Exodus 19:5

If you have not already taken your copy of the book This Is My Body by Bishop Robert Barron that was made available last weekend at the entrances of the church, please be certain to do so as it is an informative and reflective read for this the year of the National Eucharistic Revival in the Catholic Church.

[A small excerpt from the book itself] A recent Pew Forum survey revealed the startling statistic that 69% of Catholics do not believe in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. For the majority of Catholics today, the Eucharist is merely a symbol of Christ, and the Mass is merely a collectivity of like-minded individuals gathering to remember his life.

This indicates a spiritual disaster, for the Eucharist is "the source and summit of the Christian life." In response to this crisis, Bishop Robert Barron, then the Chair of the Committee on Evangelization and Catechesis for the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, began working with his brother bishops on a solution. From these conversations, the National Eucharistic Revival was born.

This Is My Body: A Call to Eucharistic Revival is designed to accompany that revival. In this brief but illuminating text, Bishop Barron offers a threefold analysis of the Eucharist as sacred meal, sacrifice, and Real Presence, helping readers to understand the sacrament of Jesus' Body and Blood more thoroughly so that they might fall in love with him more completely.

The profound truth flowing out of Jesus' words at the Last Supper: "Take, eat; this is my body. . . Drink from it, all of you; for this is my blood of the covenant."

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners,

We celebrated a Memorial Mass for Roberta Macy, the aunt of Mary Piechowski, our Associate Organist. Roberta was described as someone who was “born to serve others,” which is a wonderful thing to say about a person. She worked as a registered nurse and had a warm, welcoming heart. Please keep her in prayer as we commend the souls of the just in the loving hands of God.

I also had a funeral Mass for Donald Pollack, who was married to his wife Joan for 63 years. Donald suffered from Parkinson's during the last 15 years but attended Mass regularly when he was able. He and Joan have two daughters and a granddaughter, and we express our sympathy to his wife, children and granddaughter. Donald had a love of acting and was a thespian in the Little Theatre for many years. He used to enjoy rehearsing his lines with his two daughters. He also enjoyed Cleveland sports and photography. May he and all the faithful departed rest in peace.

The Bishop has asked all priests to draw your attention to a proposed amendment to Ohio's Constitution which claims to recognize reproductive freedoms but which in fact furthers a culture of demand that removes current safeguards for women. As Catholics, we find the proposed amendment dangerous, unjust, and contrary to our belief in the sacredness of all life. Groups are currently collecting citizen signatures to add the amendment to the November 2023 ballot. More informational resources are coming, but in the meantime, please decline to sign any petition to put this amendment on the November ballot. Also please pray, learn and volunteer by visiting the “Protect Them Both” resource center at www.ohiocathconf.org/protect. This website is the official voice of the Catholic Church in Ohio on public policy, advocating for the dignity life at all stages, immigrants, Ohioans in need, and Catholic education. Please also cut out of this bulletin this Prayer to Defeat Ohio's Abortion Amendment, called “Protect them Both” and put it where you can pray it often (please even pray it now!):

Ever-living God, you give life and desire a future for all your children. Take hold of our nation, state, and community and awaken in every heart awe for the gift of life. Send your Spirit to strengthen us with wisdom and fortitude as we defend mothers and children in Ohio from laws that disregard their health and safety. Mary and Joseph trusted in you and welcomed Jesus into our broken world. Father, we ask their intercession to protect the reborn and their mothers, and to guide all parents in raising their children. May they help us build a civilization of love by upholding the sacredness of life, preserving parental rights, and accompanying pregnant women in need. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen. Our Lady, Mother of the Family, pray for us! St. Joseph, Protector of the Unborn, pray for us!

Last week, on the feast of Corpus Christi, we invited you to take home a small booklet written by Bishop Robert Barron called “This is My Body...a call to a Eucharistic Revival.” We still have some copies left so please be sure to take one home this weekend if you did not get one last weekend, and feel free to give a copy to someone you know who may benefit from this explanation of the great gift of the Eucharist. We will order more if necessary so please let us know if you cannot find a copy on the tables in the church. As Catholics, we really need to have a better understanding and appreciation of this great gift given to us each weekend. Let me know what you think of the book!

Fr. James Schmitz
