Today throughout the United States, we celebrate our freedom. Our rights are protected and opportunities abound. We recognize that freedom has a cost, one we celebrate and honor on days such as this. It's good to honor those who fight for our country, who may well pay the ultimate price for the liberties we're afforded. As faithful Catholics, we recognize that there is more to freedom than simply being at liberty to make our lives what we want them to be. St. John Paul II reminds us: "Freedom is not just doing what we can, it is doing what we ought." We become freer within ourselves and within our relationships when we choose what is right and good. When we choose sin, we become trapped in egoism - less free, not more. This Independence Day, let's continue to pursue virtue and good character and encourage others to do this same.

Reminder: The Rectory Office will be closed Monday, July 3rd and Tuesday July 4th in observance of the holiday and will reopen Wednesday, July 5th.

INDEPENDENCE DAY MASS

There will be an Independence Day Mass on Tuesday, July 4th, at 9:00a.m. Weather permitting, the Mass will be held at the Marian Shrine. If possible, bring a chair. Begin your holiday by attending Mass and giving thanks for the many freedoms with which we have been blessed.

WOMANKIND BABY BOTTLE FUNDRAISER

All baby bottles need to be returned to the Church or Rectory Office by JULY 2nd!!! Thank You!!!

2024 GUIDE BOOKS

Please be sure to view the back page of this bulletin to view and complete the form for our Parish Records and for the 2024 Guide Book. This book is being provided and direct-mailed to each family at no cost to our church, and it is again being subsidized by local businesses that advertise. If you own or manage a business and would like to find out about advertising in our book, please call the Rectory Office. Recent survey results by Guide Book Publishing show that 92.1% of families would rather patronize a Guide Book & Directory advertiser over a non-advertiser. It "will pay" to advertise in our new Guide Book & Directory.

MEMORIES

For the longest time, the statues of St. Joseph and the Virgin Mary were on separate sides of the sanctuary. When the church was renovated, the statues were moved to the same side of the church, and a statue of Jesus as a child was added. They were finally united as the Holy Family.

Do you have a favorite memory from the past 75 years? If so, please submit it to nzola@leothegreat.org. We also welcome photos throughout the year of the people and events taking place. Do you have any photos from the Mass with the Bishop and social on October 9th? Please forward photos to: photos@leothegreat.org

The statues in church of the Blessed Virgin Mary, St. Joseph, the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and St. Anne are the same statues that were in the old church which was at the south end of the school.

T-Shirts: Have you seen the 75th anniversary T-shirts? Orders are being taken now through July 23rd. Adult T-Shirts are $15.00 each. Youth sizes are available at $12.00. Proceeds will benefit the charities supported by our parish. Order forms are available in the rectory office or you can complete the form on the left, place in an envelope with payment and drop in the collection basket.

READINGS FOR THE WEEK

FIRST READING: 2 KINGS 4:8-11, 14-16

Elisha, who lived about 800 years before Christ, succeeded the great prophet Elijah, and was noted for his miraculous deeds. Today we hear of one such deed performed in gratitude for the hospitality given to him and his servant Gehazi.

SECOND READING: ROMANS 6: 3-4, 8-11

[Today and for many Sundays hereafter, our second reading will be taken from Paul's letter to the Romans.] In a previous section of his letter to the Romans, Paul taught that we sinners are reconciled to God through the death and resurrection of Jesus. Now Paul notes that we experience this dying and rising when, in the immersion form of baptism, we are symbolically, "buried" in the water and emerge to new life.

A DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

As a boy my favorite board game was “Chutes and Ladders.” The players roll dice to move from the start to the finish, from the bottom of the board to the top. If you land on a chute, you slide back and down. It was a bummer. Land on a ladder, and you jump well up the board and near the goal. It was a thrill to find a ladder and draw closer to the goal. That’s life, isn’t it? At every moment, we’re either moving closer or farther from the goal of our lives.

How do we win? Jesus tells us the secret of life’s chutes and ladders hinges on getting our loves rightly ordered. What we love in life is meant to be a ladder, drawing us up into God’s love — including our family, friends, work, play, food, and drink. Even to give your water to someone out of love for Christ leads to a sure reward.

But those ladders of our loves can become chutes. If we love even our family members more than Christ, we slide down and back. If we love the persons and things in our life for the sake of Christ, He says we “surely will not lose our reward.” The key difference between a chute and ladder, between our spiritual regression and advancement, is our willingness to renounce everything — even our own life — for the love of Jesus. To allow everything and everyone we love to draw us to love him more — that’s the difference between chutes and ladders. — Father John Muir

PRACTICING CATHOLIC

“A Prophet’s Reward” By: Colleen Dorman

“Move back in with us until you save enough for a decent house,” my mother told me over and over again as the birth of my second child neared.

My little family was quickly outgrowing our rented space, but the housing market in our area was a nightmare for first-time homebuyers. As appealing as the offer was, I kept refusing, convinced that my mother didn’t understand the chaos, disruption, and loss of personal space that such a move would mean for her and my dad.

I was wrong — she did. And eventually she wore me down. When my son was three months old my family of four moved back into my old bedroom. My parents made an office space for my husband in the basement, and they converted their den into a playroom for two of the loudest children you will ever meet. They told us we could stay as long as we needed to (it ended up being two years). They greeted us with love and warmth every morning and never made us feel like we were an inconvenience.

Today’s first reading always reminds me of my mom, not because I consider myself a prophet (hardly) but because of the way she received me — specifically, in whose name she received me.

I’ve always tried to understand exactly what makes my parents’ acts of love — toward me, toward each other, toward perfect strangers — feel so genuine. I think, after more than 30 years, I’ve finally realized the secret: my parents love God more than they love me. They love God more than they love anyone.

Like making room in their life and their home for me and my boisterous family, these acts originate in sacrifice. They don’t come cheap. They come from the cross.

“Whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.”

— Matthew 10:39

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

“Put God First” By: Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

It took five years of marriage before I was ready to have that first baby. Of course, now that I have three children I cannot imagine a life without them. After twenty-five years, I cannot imagine life without my wife as well.

And I know that I am lucky. I know those who have lost children or have been widowed. They couldn’t imagine life without their loved ones either.

The tough reality to digest is that we don’t own those whom we love. They are all gifts from God, entrusted to each of us as good stewards. If we cling too tightly, we become like the steward who buried his talents in the ground. If we don’t care enough, we become like the prodigal son who squandered his gifts on gambling and frivolous living.

But can we love our loved ones too much? I am not sure it is possible to love others too much if it is genuine love. However, if we truly love them, then we will want to lead them to the One that gave them to us in the first place: God. We do that by demonstrating that no one comes before God in our lives, not even our family.

In this world, our loved ones make living meaningful. But this world is not the end. As much as we love them here, our ultimate goal is for them to live eternally with God. May my wife and kids never think I chose them over God, so that they may choose God over all else, as well.

Ohio Bishops on the Overturning Roe v. Wade

“...we seek to empower Catholics in Ohio to serve families with humility, gentleness, and patience in a way that reflects the Person, the Gospel and the Teaching of Jesus Christ. May we never tire of building a culture of life, so all might recognize the immeasurable value of each human life from conception to natural death.”

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners,

For the last several years we have been renting out the large room of the Parish Center and it has gone very well over all, but not infrequently we find that people do not follow the rules (such as no alcohol use or taping things to the ceiling) which causes liability to us or damage to the space. So we will continue to rent out that space but only to active parishioners (approved by me) and to parents of our school children. It is a great space that can hold around 75 people, with an overflow room (the "Conference Room") which has a large table and about 12 chairs for additional seating. We have a full kitchen, 2 restrooms, and a lot of parking. The building is also handicap accessible. We also have a large TV in the space with an Apple TV for displaying pictures, etc., a large whiteboard and a drop down screen for use with the projector that is installed in the ceiling. We will keep our prices very reasonable (very competitive with surrounding places). If you are interested in finding out more information about the rental of this space, please see our website or contact Miss Nadia whose contact information is available on the front of the parish bulletin. Many have used this space for parties for baptism, anniversaries, first communions & confirmations, birthdays, baby & wedding showers, etc.

Our rectory office will be closed on both Monday and Tuesday of this week in observance of the holiday. Mass will be celebrated outdoors at the shrine (weather permitting) on Tuesday, July 4th, at 9am. Chairs and benches are available so you need not bring your own.

Thanks to John & Jeanne Sabol for displaying new pictures in the vestibule which include a variety of school, festival and recent pictures. Be sure to take a look!

In keeping with the command of Jesus in last week's gospel that we speak in the light what is so often kept in the darkness, I would like to include here some words from our Bishop on the one year anniversary of the reversal of Roe v. Wade:

As we approach the first anniversary of the Supreme Court of the United States' Dobbs v. Jackson decision, which overturned the Roe v. Wade decision legalizing abortion in all 50 states, I'd like us all to remember the Catholic Church's teaching on the inherent dignity and immeasurable value of human life. We are brothers and sisters in the human family, created in the image and likeness of God, and we are called to protect and care for each other – from conception to natural death.

In the year since the Dobbs decision last June 24, we applaud the many states that have acted to protect preborn children, and are saddened by those that have moved to enshrine abortion into law -- and tragically in some cases -- up until birth. In Ohio, there likely will be a constitutional amendment on the November ballot that seeks to do the latter -- expand and enshrine abortion at the expense of existing protections for women and preborn children.

The Diocese of Cleveland has developed and supports many ministries to serve expectant mothers who face unplanned pregnancies and those who find it difficult to care for their children after they are born. From Catholic Charities programs and services, to the Christ Child Society to Zelig's Home, women faced with these challenging circumstances are provided with mother and infant necessities, medical and mental health care, job training and education, housing, and adoption and foster care services. Our goal is that every parish in our diocese connect women in their time of need and beyond with the many resources available to them, enabling them to choose life.

Fr. James Schmitz
